A Coup d'Etat in Portugal—A Ministerial Crisis Effected by the Army—Seven Killed—Resignation of the Premier de Loule—Succession of the Duke of Saldanha.

LONDON, May 20.—The following details of the insurrection in Portugal are published today: Gen. SALDANHA having taken the castle of St. George, after a sharp fight, wherein seven were killed and thirty wounded, entered the palace, and immediately resigned his command into the King's hands, who authorized him to form a new Ministry. This coup d'état was participated in or sympathized with by the people of Lisbon, Oporto and other cities.

DETAILS OF THE AFFAIR.

LONDON, May 20.—The following particulars of the coup d'état in Portugal have been received here:

The movement, which has been for some time in preparation, was confined to the army, and its object was simply to compel a change in the Ministry. The Duke of SALDANHA, having great influence over the troops, secured the support of the large majority of the garrison of Lisbon. Yesterday morning he was ready for action, and moved against the castle of St. George. This strong fortification, after a short struggle, was carried. The Duke then marched at the head of a large body of troops to the Royal Palace. The Governor of the palace had taken measures of defense, and the Duke found troops posted and artillery in position to oppose him. An attack was ordered and some shots were fired; but the soldiers on both sides were evidently ill-disposed to fight against each other, and after desultory firing they broke ranks and fraternized. The palace was left unguarded, and soldiers, volunteers, and some peasants who accompanied them, entered, displaying the popular flag and shouting "Long live the King, long live the army and SALDANHA; down with the Ministry!" Though greatly excited they committed no violence, and contented themselves with marching through the corridors and grounds, singing the national songs and uttering patriotic cries. The Prime Minister, the Duke DE LOULE, against whom the movement was directed, seeing the day was lost, tendered his resignation, which was accepted by the King. The victorious SALDANHA was admitted to an audience, and was requested by the King to form a new Cabinet, which task he consented to undertake. It is reported that seven men were killed and thirty wounded during the day. Though the cause of the Duke DE SALDANHA has the sympathy of the citizens of Lisbon, Oporto and other cities, the people took little or no part in this movement. The Duke intended it to be a surprise, and relied wholly on the troops for its success. What the effect will be cannot now be predicted. Great agitation prevails in the Provinces, where there is a strong party in favor of the deposed Ministry.

Debate on Infallibility in Progress in the Council—Opposition Extinct—The Danish Cabinet—Baron Liebig—Spain—Garibaldi.

LONDON, May 20.—Letters from Rome state that debate on the constitutio de primatiâ is now going on in the Ecumenical Council. The Bishops of Dijohn, Spires and Rothenburg have made speeches against the infallibility dogma, and at last accounts Cardinal SCHWARTZENBURG had the floor in opposition. One of the organs of the Vatican says, however, that resistance is practically extinct.

COPENHAGEN, May 20.—The Ministers have tendered their resignations to the King. They will continue to act provisionally until their successors are appointed.

MUNICH, May 20.—Baron LIEBIG, whose condition recently caused much anxiety, is convalescent.

MADRID, May 20.—Another deputation waited on ESPARTERO, yesterday, hoping to prevail upon him to accept the throne. It is reported that he persisted in his refusal.

FLORENCE, May 20.—Three Italian frigates are cruising around the island of Caprera to prevent the escape of Gen. GARIBALDI to Naples. The Government has taken this action because it is known the sons of GARIBALDI are with the insurgents in Southern Italy.

The Corps Legislatif—The Forthcoming Address on the Plebiscitum—Press Prosecutions—New Members of the French Academy—Decentralization.

PARIS, May 20.—The Marquis DE TALHOUET, Ex-Minister of Public Works, has been elected Vice-President of the Corps Legislatif. MM. ROUHER and SCHNEIDER will address the Chambers to-morrow, when the vote on the plebiscitum is declared. The speech to be delivered by the Emperor to-morrow was handed at noon today to the Imperial printers....Three prosecutions against the Rappel (newspaper) for violations of the Press laws were decided today against that paper, and its editors have been sentenced as follows: In the first case M. VACQUERIE to one month's imprisonment and 1,000 francs fine and M. BARBIEUX, director, to fifteen days and 500 francs. In the second case, M. CHAS. HUGO one month and 1,000 francs, and M. BARBIEUX fifteen days and 500 francs. In the third case, M. FRANCOIS HUGO one month and 1,000 francs, and M. BARBIEUX fifteen days' imprisonment....Deputy STEENACKER was burned in effigy by a number of residents of his district, last evening, on account of his opposition to the plebiscite....PROSPER DUVERGIER DE HANRANNE, a personal friend of M. THIERS, and XAVIER MARMIER have been elected members of the French Academy.

LONDON, May 20.—The proceedings of the French Commission on the subject of administrative decentralization is said to justify hopes for important concessions to local government.

Charles Kingsley Appointed Dean of Rochester—Scientific Education—Personal—The Sappho's Victories.

LONDON, May 20.—Rev. CHARLES KINGSLEY has been appointed Dean of Rochester....The Royal Commission to draw up a report on the necessity for and character of scientific education, has been formed, and is composed of the Duke of Devonshire, the Marquis of Landsowne, and Messrs. Lubbock, Shuttleworth, Huxley, Miller and Stokes....JOHN HENRY PARKER, F. S. A., the publisher, of London, is dead....MARK LEMON, editor of Punch, is seriously ill....E. S. DICEY, lately editor of the News, is about to visit the United States....The Standard has an editorial article today inspired by the recent yacht and rowing races. The writer admits the Sappho's victory, and hopes it will be the last heard of "international matches, which do nothing but foster mischievous jealousies."

PARIS, May 20.—The victories of the American yacht Sappho over the Cambria create a marked sensation among Americans here.

The British Parliament—Inquiries on Various Topics Answered—The Greek Massacre.

LONDON, May 20.—In the House of Commons to-night Mr. CHILDERS defended the Lords of the Admiralty from the imputation of favoritism in the award of contracts for freight charters. Lord MILTON extenuated his conduct in withdrawing from the House last night. He said he did so because he was denied his constitutional right to ask and receive an answer from a responsible Minister. Mr. GLADSTONE soothed the gentleman by answering his question of the night before. The Hudson's Bay Company had fulfilled its engagements to the Home Government, and there was no subject worth litigation left. The trade licenses had been legally granted under the acts quoted by the gentleman. Mr. MONSELL said recent dispatches from Ottawa reported that order prevailed in the Red River Territory, and the new form of Government provided for that district promised the best results. Mr. SHAW-LEFEVRE recited the leading provisions of the new merchant shipping code, which has been embodied in a bill. Its purpose is to protect the lives of passengers and seamen in unseaworthy vessels. Sir JOHN HAY and Mr. SAMANA thought an inquiry by a Royal Commission should precede such legislation. Mr. GRAVES also dissented, and in the course of his remarks alluded to the reports about the unseaworthiness of the missing steamer City of Boston when she left port. He denied that she was overladen, and quoted American testimony in proof of his denial. Mr. CARDWELL thought the case was one not for inquiry but for legislation; the facts were notorious. After remarks from other members the subject was dropped. Sir ROUNDELL PALMER asked what the Government had done relative to the late massacre in Greece. The Queen's subjects were theoretically entitled to protection abroad, especially diplomatic servants. He repeated the details of the murder, and eulogized the victims. Sir HENRY BULWER denounced the Greek Government with unsparing severity, and urged a conference of the Allies to give the country a Government responding in some degree to the requirements of civilization. Mr. GLADSTONE urged at the present moment moderation of feeling on the subject. The official dispatches so far received were certainly unsatisfactory; but the correspondence was still incomplete. The House adjourned.

The Soldiers' Home—Heavy Whisky Fraud Cases in Cincinnati—The St. Louis Defaulting Treasurer.

CINCINNATI, O., May 20.—The formal exercises of opening the new hospital of the National Soldiers' Home were held, yesterday, in the music hall of the institution. The attendance was very large. Speeches were made by the Local Manager, LEWIS B. GUNCKEL, Gov. HAYES of Ohio, Gov. BAKER of Indiana, Gens. WILLICH and SCHENCK, and Surgeon-General WOLCOTT, of Wisconsin. The music was by the Asylum band and the choir of the First Baptist Church of Dayton. The occasion was one of great interest....Peter Schwall, Thomas Meghan and John A. Lindley, of Hamilton; Sigmund Levi, of Cincinnati; John Eberhardt and Caleb Dodsworth, of Cummingsville; Wm. Duffy, of Higginsport, Ohio, and S. D. Rockhill, of Cincinnati, have been before Commissioner HOLLIDAY, charged with removing 500 barrels of distilled spirits contrary to the Revenue laws, in April, 1868. The cases were continued to the 27th inst., and the parties released on bail.

ST. LOUIS, May 20.—M. E. SUSISKY, the late defaulting City Treasurer, having failed to furnish bonds in the sum of $20,000, has been sent to jail to answer the indictment against him for embezzling $140,000....Mrs. SCHWALBENSTEIKER and daughter were thrown from a wagon yesterday and the latter instantly killed and the former dangerously wounded....The Mayor and City Council have instituted a suit against the Gas Company to compel them to sell the gas-works to the city as provided by the terms of a contract.

The Gas Company has brought suit against the city for various sums alleged to be due for gas furnished the city during the past three years, aggregating over $300,000. This is regarded as an offset to a suit which the City Counselor will bring against the Gas Company. Three of the bondsmen of the defaulting City Treasurer, SUSISKY, have notified Mayor COLE of their readiness to pay their proportion of his bond. The fourth bondsman will probably pursue the same course.

The Fenian Expedition to the Red River.

CHICAGO, May 10.—There is considerable commotion among the Fenians of this city over the expected arrival, on Monday evening next, of Gen. O'NEIL, who comes to complete the arrangements, already nearly matured, for sending a force to aid REILL against the British expedition now on the way to the Red River country. He is expected to make this his head-quarters.

A SEVERE REBUKE.

A Revenue Shark Caught—Technical Violations of the Revenue Laws.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Acting Commissioner DOUGLASS has written the following letter to a person in Albany:

SIR: I have received your letter of the 2d inst., in which you state that upon the receipt of my letter of Feb. 8, you commenced five suits against —— for using half-barrels for putting up tobacco a second and third time, and that, after four hearings before the United States Commissioner, upon the recommendation of District-Attorney ——, these suits were all dismissed, and you now write to inquire if there is no way by which Mr. —— can be arrested for the offense charged against him. In reply, I have to inform you, that however reluctant you may be to give up this case, and to fail in claiming your anticipated moieties, I am entirely satisfied with the decision made by the Commissioner. From your own statement of this case, it was clearly a trick on your part—aided, perhaps, by the person who purchased the tobacco of Mr. ——, to commit the latter to a technical violation of the law, in order that you might bring the suits. Clearly, it was not out of any respect you had for the law, or care that its requirements should all be faithfully complied with, or fear that the revenue would be defrauded. I am informed that both you and your accomplice distinctly stated before the United States Commissioner that the stamps were thoroughly removed from the packages after they were first emptied, and that when they were refilled by —— he affixed genuine new stamps, thus demonstrating that Mr. —— neither intended nor practiced any fraud upon the revenue. Mr. —— is a manufacturer and dealer in tobacco. He has given bonds in the sum of $6,000 for the faithful performance of all the requirements of the law and the payment of taxes, which may accrue against him. As a dealer and manufacturer, he has paid considerable sums of money into the United States Treasury, and is, therefore, entitled to some consideration at the hands of the Government, to protection at least against voluntary spies and self-appointed detectives, who would set traps and snares for honest men for the moiety of a hundred dollars fine, and sell their manhood for thirty pieces of silver. You ask for an answer to your letter that you may show to Commissioner ——. I shall be very glad if you will show this to the Commissioner, that he may know that I approve of his disposition of these cases; and, further, that he may know in what estimation this office holds men who may make a business of hunting up technical violations of law and entering complaints in hope of obtaining therefrom moieties and informer's shares.

The Alpha Delta Phi in Portland—Criminals Sentenced in Boston—Insurance Matters—The Lime Rock Bank Robbers.

PORTLAND, Me., May 20.—The public exercises of the Alpha Beta Phi Society at the City Hall last evening were largely attended and much interest was manifested. Gov. CHAMBERLAIN delivered the address, Rev. J. N. TARBOX, D. D., of Boston, read a poem; Hon. T. M. POMEROY delivered an oration. Chief Justice BRADLEY, of the Brunonian Chapter, was chosen to deliver the address in 1871, and ALFRED B. STREET, of the Hamilton Chapter, to deliver the poem.

BOSTON, May 20.—ELIZABETH CHASE has been sentenced to six years in the House of Correction for kidnapping NELLIE BURNS. THOS. CRAMLICK, convicted of manslaughter in killing PHILIP HOUGHTON, was sentenced to three years in the State Prison....The bill annexing Brighton to Boston has passed to a third reading in the Senate by one majority....A meeting of the policy-holders in the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New-York was held yesterday, in the Board of Trade, and it was voted that a committee of three prominent citizens of Boston be appointed to represent the policy-holders of Boston, to receive proxies and attend the next election of officers in New-York, and also to have power to investigate on behalf of the policy-holders in accordance with the suggestions made by Mr. PRUYN. A vote of thanks was given to Mr. MCCULLOCH, on whose motion the same was tendered to Mr. PRUYN and Judge DAVIS.

BELFAST, Me., May 20.—An armed guard ordered by Gov. CHAMBERLAIN, with the concurrence of the bank officers, is now on guard at the jail in this city, to prevent the escape of the parties connected with the Lime Rock Bank robbery. This relieves Sheriff CALDERWOOD from responsibility for their custody.

Trial of the "Fire-Bug" Leonard Choate—The Case Deferred to November.

BOSTON, May 20.—The case of LEONARD CHOATE, the "Fire-bug," was yesterday called up in the Superior Court, (Criminal Term,) now sitting in Newburyport, Judge DEVENS presiding. The indictment was very carefully prepared, charging LEONARD CHOATE as principal or accessory in firing the Harris-street Church, Newburyport, Dec. 18, 1868. After the reading of the indictment, CHOATE pleaded not guilty. The counsel for the defendant, Messrs. A. A. ABBOTT and S. B. IVES, Jr., at once asked for time to consult their client, and the entire forenoon was occupied by them in deliberations, and at the close of the morning session they had not come in Court with the result of their consultations. At 2 o'clock the Court came in, and Mr. IVES presented a written statement to the Court, saying, in substance, that at a former term of the Court CHOATE was convicted, and his counsel had filed exceptions to the rulings of the Judge on some important points; that these exceptions were to be argued at the Law Term of the Supreme Court next November; that these same points would be raised in this case, if brought to trial, and in behalf of his client he proposed now to enter a plea of nolo contendere, arguing that this plea was not to be considered as an admission of his client's guilt. The Court admitted the plea, with the understanding that if the rulings of the Court on the former trial are sustained, then CHOATE is to be sentenced for that conviction, as well as on this indictment, without further trial. The Government had forty witnesses on hand. CHOATE has been remanded to jail until the November decision is known. He is much thinner than when first arrested, and his long confinement is wearing upon him.

THE RELIGIOUS CONVENTIONS.

General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church at Philadelphia—Reformed Presbyterian General Synod in Cincinnati—The Methodists in Memphis.

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—In the Presbyterian Assembly, this morning, the Moderator read the following congratulatory dispatch addressed to the Assembly by the venerable Dr. ELLIOTT, who was Moderator of the General Assembly of 1838, at which the memorable schism occurred:

ALLEGHANY CITY, Penn, May 20.

To the Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church:

The Moderator of the last General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church immediately preceding the separation sends greeting to the first reunited Assembly of the same through their Moderator, praying that their proceedings may be distinguished by wisdom that is from above, and cemented by the charity which is the bond of perfectness. DAVID ELLIOTT.

The reading was received with evident satisfaction, and on its conclusion the Stated Clerk was directed, on motion, to send an appropriate response to Dr. ELLIOTT. Judge MELLOY tendered his resignation as one of the temporary clerks because both of the temporary clerks were from the one body in the West. A motion was made that his resignation be not accepted by the Assembly, which was agreed to. Standing committees were appointed and the report of the Committee on Publication was read.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, May 20.—The General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America, yesterday, elected Rev. Dr. MCLEOD, of New-York, Moderator; Rev. Dr. STEELE, of Philadelphia, Secretary, and Rev. Mr. WOODSIDE, of Brooklyn, Assistant Secretary. On taking the chair, Dr. MCLEOD made a short address, alluding to his connection with the Synod as Stated Clerk for thirty-five years. He looked upon this time as a crisis in the history of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, and hoped the Synod would not be governed by partisan spirit in its deliberations. A number of informal reports were made, after which the Moderator announced the standing committees. The reports of the Presbyteries were received, and all those that referred to the subject of a union with the United Presbyterian Church, favored it, except the Eastern and the Philadelphia Presbyteries, which were opposed to union. The Ohio and Chicago Presbyteries did not refer to the subject.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 20.—In the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, today, Bishop KAVANAH presiding, the Committee on the Formation of a New Conference Committee for the circulation of the Holy Scriptures, submitted an able report, which was adopted. The report of the Committee on Boundaries, submitted yesterday, was adopted. The report of the Committee on the Book Concern, in favor of its continuance at Nashville, provoked a long discussion. Drs. BOND and WATSON, of Baltimore, and MORAN, of North Carolina, favored its removal to Baltimore, and Drs. MCFERREN, of Tennessee, and EVANS, of Georgia, opposed the proposition.

After the discussion had been continued for some time, Major DAWSON, of Kentucky, offerred an amendment substituting Louisville in lieu of Baltimore, with a proviso that Louisville pay the proposed $50,000. Pending which, the Conference adjourned.

The Diocesan Convention in Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—The Diocesan Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church adjourned sine die this afternoon. The most important act of the Convention was their creation of a new diocese, comprising the five counties around Philadelphia, subject to the approval of the General Convention.

Coming Home—A New Sea Peril.

From the Commercial Advertiser, May 20.

The only drawback to foreign travel hereafter will be the dread of coming home. The new regulations of the Custom-house are so stringent that the returning American will actually look with apprehension upon the shores of his native land. It is a question of clothes—of a "reasonable amount of clothing"—which the traveler may have in his trunks. The individual may not decide this. It is left to the Custom-house officer—a man whose small salary has never allowed him a very liberal expenditure for garments, and who is likely to regard a "reasonable" supply as only another term for a "necessary supply." Dr. HOLMES wrote years ago:

"Three pairs of boots; one pair if feet demands,
If polished daily by the owner's hands;
If the dark menial's visit save from this,
Have twice that number, for he'll sometimes miss."

Now to many persons three or six pairs of boots or shoes are a mere bagatelle—poverty and destitution. So with coats and other garments. But who shall decide for the ladies, and is there any "reason" in their dress? Shall an inspector decide for Flora McFlimsy, who had "nothing to wear," though a host of dresses hung upon her walls? The whole thing is contemptible and small, and unworthy of a great nation. The people are not all swindlers and smugglers. They are not all knaves and cheats. Yet so the Government in its Custom-house and revenue regulations regards them. As the TIMES well observes: "People have paid heavy taxes for some years without a murmur, but, instead of their liberality being well appreciated, they are now subjected to a few extra turns of the 'screw.' Why make any method of raising money for Government unnecessarily odious? Suppose a man does bring an extra coat or two with him, the Government can much better afford to let him do it than authorize its officials to reckon up garments and appraise their value, like so many second-hand clothes dealers." Returning travelers should at least be allowed to revisit home with some emotions of pleasure.

Minnesota Expedition to the Red River.

From the St. Paul Press, May 17.

We are reliably informed that a large expedition, with an abundant outfit of supplies, is being organized in this State for the colonization of the lower valley of the Red River, and along the line of the Northern Pacific Railroad. We understand that between 500 and 1,000 men are preparing to join this great emigration column. Their exact destination they do not reveal, and probably will not be determined on till they have completed their explorations; but they have nearly finished their preparations for moving, and will probably start in a few days.

FORTY-FIRST CONGRESS.

SECOND SESSION.

SENATE....WASHINGTON, Saturday, May 20.

Mr. FENTON presented a petition of the stockholders of the several companies formed to establish a communication between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, asking Congress to authorize an examination and survey by United States officers of the Nicaragua route; also a petition for the recognition of belligerent rights of Cubans now struggling for freedom.

RHODE ISLAND STATES RIGHTS.

Mr. ANTHONY, in reply to a memorial presented yesterday by Mr. POMEROY, complaining of discrimination in the laws of Rhode Island against naturalized citizens, said there was nothing in the Constitution of the State contravening the Constitution of the United States or the laws made in pursuance therof. When the bill, on the subject of which the Senator had given notice, was introduced there would be no difficulty in maintaining the law-abiding character of that State and the right of the people of Rhode Island to regulate their own affairs.

A TEXAS-PACIFIC RAILWAY.

Mr. HOWARD moved to make the Texas-Pacific Railroad bill a special order.

Mr. SHERMAN objected to all special orders until the bill to reduce taxation was disposed of.

Mr. HOWARD finally withdrew his motion, and both bills were placed on the calendar.

THE FINAL ADJOURNMENT.

The House resolution for final adjournment on July 4, was taken up. A motion to pass it over was lost—yeas 20, nays 32. Motions to fix the day for Friday, July 15, Monday, July 18, and Friday, July 22, were severally voted down by yeas and nays.

Mr. CORBETT moved to fix July 8 as the day.

Mr. DRAKE called the yeas and nays, and said he would insist upon the roll being called on each motion, so that the country might see that the efforts of Republican Senators to do the public business were being defeated by a combination of Democrats with a Republican minority.

Mr. CAMERON said he would not be dragooned into a particular line of conduct by the fear of voting with Democrats. The sentiment of the Senate was two to one in favor of fixing the day for July 4 and it was time for the minority to yield.

Mr. DRAKE thought the Senator's computation as to the sentiment of the Senate showed that his education in arithmetic was very defective. The votes taken did not show a majority of more than five votes.

A general discussion ensued upon the denunciatory style of argument resorted to in the Senate upon certain questions, Mr. TIPTON characterizing it as infamously odious, and a game which the editor of the Chronicle had been practicing for months past, especially upon the Georgia bill. That paper had charged Republican Senators with affiliation with Democrats, in order to drive them into opposition to Mr. BINGHAM'S amendment, and dared them to vote for it in the face of their constituents.

At this point the morning hour expired, and the Fifteenth Amendment bill coming up, Mr. HOWARD was awarded the floor, but he yielded it to Mr. CAMERON, on whose motion the pending business was laid aside by yeas 31, nays 21, and the adjournment resolution further debated. Finally, Mr. CORBETT'S motion was lost, when the resolution was agreed to as amended, to fix the time of adjournment for Friday, July 15, by yeas 35. nays 21.

THE FIFTEENTH AMENDMENT BILL.

The consideration of the Fifteenth Amendment bill was then resumed, when Mr. STEWART gave notice in reference to sundry objections. He would agree to striking out the fifth section, allowing a candidate deprived of office by a violation of the rights of colored voters, to recover possession by writ of mandamus, and giving the United States Courts jurisdiction in such cases.

Mr. HOWARD suggested the necessity of an amendment to the twelfth section to define the duty of military authorities when called upon to execute the law. This was debated at length during the remainder of the afternoon without the slightest action, and at 5 o'clock, after a short Executive Session, the Senate took a recess till 7½ o'clock this evening.

EVENING SESSION.

At 7½ o'clock the Senate resumed consideration of the bill to enforce the Fifteenth Amendment, and Mr. WARNER'S amendment to require the payment of a forfeit of $500 for violations of the law to any person suing for the same, instead of to the party aggrieved, was rejected without a division.

Mr. SAWYER, in reply to a question put to him during the debate by Mr. HOWARD, whether in advocating a general amnesty he had forgot the war, referred to his own proscription as a citizen of South Carolina during the war on account of his Union sentiments.

Mr. A. G. THURMAN made an argument against the right of Congress to enter the States and deal with the qualifications of the electors, or to override the State Courts by giving to the United States Courts jurisdiction over election offenses. He submitted an amendment of three sections, which had been prepared by a committee of the House, the object of which, he said, was to preserve purity of elections and prevent the repetition of glaring frauds committed in New-York City at the last Presidential election.

The amendment provides that any person, at elections for members of Congress or Electors for President or Vice-President, who shall vote and not be entitled to vote, or who shall by any means induce or compel an election officer to receive unlawful votes, and any election officer refusing or omitting to do any duty imposed by this act, shall be indictable, and on conviction suffer a fine not exceeding $500, or imprisonment not exceeding three years, or both, and pay costs. It also provides the same penalties for unlawfully registering or causing the registering of any person not entitled. Also, the same penalties for an unlawful interference with political meetings called to discuss national affairs or claims of candidates for Federal offices.

Mr. CASSERLY said that every Congressional District in New-York City was overwhelmingly anti-Radical, and any attempt by Congress to destroy or whittle down Democratic majorities would more clearly demonstrate the fact.

Mr. SHERMAN said that an official investigation in the House of Representatives had established that at the last Presidential election thousands and tens of thousands of illegal votes were polled. If the result of that election had depended upon the vote of New-York State, we would have had a war and a revolution growing out of the state of things there only the other day. According to the public journals, wholesale frauds had been committed there. He claimed that the strength of the Republican Party was, in the main, within the agricultural districts, among the farmers and laboring masses of the interior, while the election frauds had become a constituent element of the Democratic majorities in large cities. Every Congressional District in New-York City was Democratic for this reason, and now that the evil had become one of national concern, it was the duty of Congress to protect itself from such wrongs. He then asked for the reading of an extract from the New-York Sun, whose Democratic tendencies, and hostility to Gen. GRANT, he thought were well known. The extract was read, being a commentary on the fraudulent character of the recent election.

Mr. TRUMBULL remarked that that portion of the amendment pertaining to the Presidential elections was manifestly unconstitutional, as it would overturn the plain constitutional direction for their appointment in the manner provided by each State.

Mr. SHERMAN modified his amendment to obviate the constitutional objection of Mr. TRUMBULL, limiting it to the election of Congressmen.

After further discussion, at 11¾ a motion to adjourn was negatived, and a vote being about to be taken on Mr. SHERMAN'S amendment, Mr. THURMAN said the Senate was asked at midnight to adopt a scheme which would reverse the whole practice of the Government for eighty years—since its foundation. Such a proposition had never before been suggested or dreamed of by any American politician or statesman. Its adoption would be a triumph of the brute force of the members over the reasoning powers of the Senate. In the name of justice, and for the sake of the Forty-first Congress, he asked for an adjournment until Monday, agreeing to have a vote taken upon the bill then.

Mr. SUMNER asserted his belief that the amendment was pertinent to the bill and hoped it would be adopted.

Mr. SHERMAN'S amendment was then rejected—14 to 26.

Mr. HAMLIN renewed his amendment except the prohibition against the disturbances of political meetings.

Shortly after 12 o'clock Mr. THURMAN took the floor in opposition to the amendment, and remarked that he proposed to speak until sunrise.

At 1 o'clock Mr. THURMAN concluded by moving to adjourn. Lost.

Mr. CASSERLY then took the floor.

Three o'clock A. M.—It is now the apparent intention of the minority to talk until morning to prevent a vote, and of the majority to sit it out. Mr. CASSERLY is still speaking.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

NAVAL RELIEF BILL.

Mr. STEVENS, from the Committee on Naval Affairs, reported a bill for the relief of the officers and crew of the ship Nightingale. Passed.

Mr. ARCHER, from the same Committee, reported a bill for the relief of Chief-Engineers GEORGE SEWELL and WILLIAM H. SHOCK, of the Navy. Passed.

Mr. HALE, from the same Committee, reported a bill to compensate the officers and crew of the Kearsarge for the destruction of the Alabama: authorizing $190,000 to be paid from the Japanese Indemnity Fund, minus such sum as had been already received for bounty. Passed.

THE WYOMING FIGHT IN 1863.

Mr. ARCHER, from the same Committee, reported a bill for the relief of the officers and crew of the United States ship Wyoming, authorizing $100,000 to be paid out of the Japanese Indemnity Fund, to the officers and crew of that vessel who participated in the action at Simonoseki, Japan, in July, 1863. The report and the discussion showed that the act for which the appropriation is recommended was the attack made upon, and destruction of three Japanese vessels of war and shore batteries, for having fired upon an American vessel—the Pembroke. After discussion, on motion of Mr. MAYNARD, the bill was laid on the table—71 to 50.

REWARD FOR AN INVENTOR.

Mr. HAYS, from the same Committee, reported the bill to pay A. Q. ROSS $5,000 for the past and future use of his invention for the use of hot water and steam in the United States Navy as a weapon of offense and defense.

The morning hour expired, and the bill went over until Friday next.

THE LOUISIANA CONTESTED ELECTION CASE.

The House at 1½ took up the Louisiana contested election case of NEWSHAM against RYAN, the resolution of the majority being that MICHAEL RYAN is not entitled to the seat, and that J. P. NEWSHAM is. After speeches by Mr. BURDETT for, and by Mr. VOORHEES against the report, the matter went over until to-morrow.

THE SENATE ADJOURNMENT AGREED TO.

A message from the Senate having been received announcing concurrence in the House resolution for the final adjournment on Monday, the 4th of July, with an amendment fixing the adjournment for Friday, July 15. The House, on motion of Mr. DAWES, agreed to the amendment, and a motion to reconsider was laid on the table, thus making the matter definite and final.

DISTRICTS OF COLUMBIA BUSINESS.

Under the new rule the afternoon session was devoted exclusively to the business of the District of Columbia. A large number of incorporating and other bills having been passed. The only measure that gave rise to discussion was a bill for the paving of Pennsylvania-avenue, which was opposed by Mr. KNOTT in a speech so interspersed with with illustrations and droll conceits that it attracted all the members present in a circle around him, and provoked continuous laughter and applause. At the close of Mr. KNOTT'S speech the bill went over.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON THE ARMY BILL.

The Speaker announced Messrs. LOGAN, SLOCUM and NEGLEY as the Conference Committee on the Army bill.

The House then, at 5½ o'clock, adjourned.

HAYTI.

The Fifteenth Amendment in Port-au-Prince—The Gonaives Conspiracy—The Resumption of Specie Payments—Claims Against the Salnave Government.

PORT-AU-PRINCE, Thursday, May 12, 1870.

United States Minister BASSET has waited upon SAGET to inform him officially of the ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. The President replied with remarks eulogistic to the President and Congress of the United States, and said that the people of Hayti would feel much closer allied to the United States on account of the amendment.

The conspirators who were captured at Gonaives have been tried by Court-martial; the decision of the Court has not yet been made known, but it is expected that some of them will be shot. All is quiet there now, and the course of the Government is giving universal satisfaction.

An attempt to return to a specie basis is about being made, and a liberal loan is already offered by European capitalists to assist the Government in their endeavor.

The President has visited the Western and Artebonite Districts, and was received with great enthusiasm.

M. S. FAUBERT, formerly Minister to Spain, has been appointed Minister of Finance. The selection is considered a good one.

The Commission to investigate the claims against the Salnave Government has concluded its labors, and reports debts to the amount of $1,000,000 gold, and $80,000,000 paper, of which the present Government assumes the responsibility. Exchange, 250.

THE CANADIAN FISHERIES.

Secretary Boutwell's Circular to the Collector of Customs.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, May 18, 1870.

SIR: In compliance with the request of the Secretary of State, you are hereby authorized and directed to inform all masters of fishing vessels at the time of clearance from your port, that the authorities of the Dominion of Canada have terminated the system of granting fishing licenses to foreign vessels, under which they have heretofore been permitted to fish within the maritime jurisdiction of said Dominion, that is to say, within three marine miles of the shores thereof, and that all fishermen of the United States are prohibited from the use of such inshore fisheries, except so far as stipulated in the first article of the treaty of October 20, 1818, between the United States and Great Britain, in virtue of which the fishermen of the United States have, in common with the subjects of her Britannic Majesty, the liberty to take of every kind on that part of the southern coast of Newfoundland, which extends from Cape Ray to the Ramean Islands, on the western and northern coast of Newfoundland, from the said Cape Ray to the Quirpon Islands on the shores of the Magdalen Islands, and also on the coasts, bays, harbors and creeks from Mount Joly, which was when the treaty was signed on the southern coast of Labrador, to and through the Straits of Bellisle, and thence northwardly, indefinitely along the coast without prejudice, however, to any exclusive rights of the Hudson Bay Company, and have also liberty forever to dry and cure fish in any of the unsettled bays, harbors and creeks of the southern part of the coast of Newfoundland above described, and of the coast of Labrador, unless the same or any portion thereof be settled, in which case it is not lawful for the said fishermen to dry or cure fish at such portions settled without previous agreement for such purpose with the inhabitants, proprietors or possessors of the ground, and also are admitted to enter any other bays or harbors for the purpose of shelter and of repairing damages therein, of purchasing wood and of obtaining water, and for no other purpose whatever, subject to such restrictions as may be necessary to prevent their taking, drying and curing fish there, or in any other manner whatever abusing the privileges reserved to them, as above expressed. The Canadian law of the 22d of May, 1868, 31 Victoria, chapter 61, entitled, An act respecting fishing by foreign vessels, among other things, enacts that any commissioned officer of Her Majesty's Navy serving on board of any vessel of Her Majesty's subjects engaged in the fisheries, or any commissioned officer of Her Majesty's Navy, fishery officer, or stipendiary Magistrate on board of any vessel belonging to or in the service of the Government of Canada, and employed in the service of protecting the fisheries, or any officer of the Customs of Canada, Sheriff, Magistrate or other person duly commissioned for that purpose, may go on board of any ship, vessel or boat within any harbor in Canada, or hovering in British waters within three miles of any of the coasts, bays, creeks or harbors in Canada, and stay on board so long as she may remain within such place or distance. It also provides that if such ship, vessel or boat be found elsewhere, and shall continue within such harbor or so hovering for twenty-four hours after the master shall have been required to depart, any one of such officers or persons as are above-mentioned may bring such ship, vessel or boat into port and search her cargo, and may also examine the master upon oath touching the cargo and voyage, and if the master or person in command shall not truly answer the questions put to him on such examination he shall forfeit $400, and if such ship, vessel or boat be foreign or not navigated according to the laws of the United Kingdom or of Canada, and have been found fishing or preparing to fish or to have been fishing in British waters within three marine miles of any of the coasts, bays, creeks or harbors of Canada, not included in the above-mentioned limits, without a license, or after the expiration of the period named in the last license granted to such ship, vessel or boat under the first section of this act, such ship, vessel or boat, and the tackle, rigging, apparel, furniture, stores and cargo thereof shall be forfeited, and that all good ships, vessels and boats, and the tackle, rigging, apparel, furniture, stores and cargo liable to forfeiture under this act, may be seized and secured by any officers or persons mentioned in the second section of this act, and every person opposing any officer or person in the execution of his duty under this act, or aiding or abetting any other person in any opposition, shall forfeit $800, and shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years. On the 8th of January, 1870, the Governor-General of the Dominion of Canada, in council, ordered that suitable sailing vessels, similar to La Canadienne, be chartered and equipped for the service of protecting the Canadian in-shore fisheries against illegal encroachments by foreigners. These vessels to be connected with the Police force of Canada and form a marine branch of the same. It is understood that by a change of the boundaries between Canada and Labrador the Canadian territory now includes Mount Joly and a portion of the shore to the east thereof, which in the treaty of 1818 was described as the southern coast of Labrador. This municipal change of boundary does not, however, interfere with the right of American fishermen as defined by the treaty on that portion of what was the southern coast of Labrador, east of Mount Joly. Very respectfully,

GEO. S. BOUTWELL, Secretary.

President Grant.

In his speech at the celebration of the ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment in Baltimore, on Thursday, Postmaster-General CRESWELL said:

"It was not permitted that LINCOLN should survive to see this glorious consummation; but the great Captain in whom he trusted implicitly, and to whom, in his last speech, he attributed all the honor of leadership in the stupendous military operations which closed the war, now by authority of the people occupies the Presidential Chair. In his inaugural address he expressed a desire for the ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment; and he has ever since shown his sincerity by his unceasing labors to accomplish that result. His anxiety may be gathered from the language of his recent proclamation, where he declares the ratification to be 'the most important event that has occurred since the nation came into life.' To him more than to any other living man is its final success attributable. The leading part which he has taken in dedicating the colored race to freedom and to the service of our common country, has crowned his career with the most admirable triumph of his life, and has fully established the truth of that saying, once applied to CROMWELL, but which CROMWELL lived to verify only in part:

'Peace hath her victories
No less renown'd than war.'

Sudden Death of Hon. Charles B. Rich.

From the Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, May 18.

We are in receipt of information to the effect that about 9 o'clock on Monday night last, Hon. CHARLES B. RICH, of Akron, Erie County, was found lying dead on the highway, about a mile from his residence. It is thought that he fell from his sulky in an epileptic fit.

The deceased was one of the oldest residents of Western New-York, being born in Sharon, Schohairie County, June 28, 1808. He removed to Akron in about 1825, where he had resided ever since. He was at one time Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue in this district, and from 1864 to 1868 was United States Indian Agent. In 1869 he was a member of the State Legislature. Mr. RICH was highly esteemed by all who knew him.

The Trial of Shultz for Cutting His Wife's Throat—The Verdict.

The trial of CHARLES SHULTZ for attempting to murder his wife by cutting her throat with a razor was concluded yesterday in the Hudson County Court of Quarter Sessions. At the opening of the Court some unimportant testimony was given, after which Mr. ROWE, counsel for the prisoner, proceeded to sum up. After explaining and commenting on the law bearing upon insanity, he forcibly applied it to his client's advantage by picturing him as a martyred husband and an abused father, whose wife and family, instead of nurturing and fostering him in his hoary age, now sought to consign him to a felon's doom. The counsel held that the systematic persecutions practiced on him by his wife and children were sufficient to madden a man with a more vigorous reason, and that it was in one of those frenzied moments, while smarting under the recollections of his bitter treatment, that he perpetrated the offense with which he stood charged.

Mr. STOUT followed on behalf of the State. He thought the insanity plea was almost "played out." The act of the prisoner was premeditated in the morning while shaving, and during the day he nerved himself with liquor. If he was crazy at all it was from drink.

Judge RANDOLPH, in charging the Jury, observed that the evidence for the defense "disclosed to the horror of the Court a state of feeling toward a father certainly crushing to the heart." "If the prisoner was not conscious of the nature of the act, or of its being wrong, he is not responsible." The Judge commented severely upon the evidence of the witnesses for the prosecution, who, he said, had shown a lack of "filial and wifely affection" for the man who had attempted to murder the wife and mother. The Jury found a verdict of simple assault.

Criminal Sentences and Discharges Before Recorder Hackett.

The proceedings in the Court of General Sessions, yesterday, before Recorder HACKETT, included the case of GEORGE ELLIS, a noted burglar and successful jail-breaker, who pleaded guilty to having broken into the diamond and jewelry store of SOLOMON MIGEL with intent to steal. It was announced that a requisition had been received by Gov. HOFFMAN from Gov. GEARY, of Pennsylvania, asking for the return of the accused to that State to answer several charges of burglary which were pending against him there. His counsel, Mr. C. A. SEWARD, made a motion that the prisoner be returned to Pennsylvania, but the Court decided adversely and sent him to State Prison for five years. CHAS. WINCH, a confederate of BURNS and ELLIS in the emigrant swindling business, was discharged on motion of the Assistant District-Attorney, he having been used as a witness against BURNS.

In the case of RODNEY M. POMEROY, whose alleged extensive swindling operations are well known among the leather merchants in the Swamp, the Assistant District-Attorney announced that he would be unable to introduce any evidence to show that the accused was not a member of the supposed mythical firm of CLARK & Co., of Cincinnati, whose name he used in his dealings with his reputed victims. The prisoner was accordingly discharged. He has been tried and acquitted on two occasions in consequence of the failure of the prosecution to establish the falsity of his pretenses.

JOHN BRYAN, charged with robbing JOHN DENNISON, of No. 11 Hamilton-street, of a silver watch, pleaded guilty of petty larceny, and was sent to State Prison for two years. The stealing of a large quantity of silks and other goods from No. 65 Leonard-street, was proved against GEO. ALLEN, who was sent to State Prison for five years.

The Court subsequently adjourned until Monday.

A Forged Check—The Atlantic National Bank Victimized.

A man known as yet only by the name of FASSIN, and who seems to have been a bungling sort of operator, yesterday managed to obtain the cashing of one of three forged checks, all of which were for small amounts, whereby he secured $810. It is alleged that he employed a boy, named THOMAS BROWN, as a messenger, through whom the checks were sent to the Union-square National Bank where they were deposited to the credit of FASSIN, and one was afterward cashed at the Atlantic National Bank. The cashing of this check was an incident that might happen any day in any bank, but the subsequent proceedings of the forger were so mal-adroit that but for the premature publication that was made in certain evening papers of the fact of the forgery, distorted though it was, he would have been captured. As it is, he has effected his escape, for the time, at least, and the Atlantic National Bank is a loser to the extent of $500, it having had the good luck to recover $310 of the amount paid on the forged check.

Application for a Warrant for the Arrest of an Ex-Police Justice.

At the Essex Market Police Court yesterday, before Justice LEDWITH, a respectably-attired woman, apparently about thirty-five years of age, but whose name could not be ascertained from any of the officers of the Court, made application for a warrant for the arrest of Ex-Police Judge MANSFIELD, for neglecting to support a child of which he is the father. She stated that he had frequently rendered her assistance, but latterly he altogether refused to do so, and having no other means of sustenance she had to resort to legal proceedings. Judge LEDWITH recommended the woman to make her statement to the Commissioners of Charities and Correction, and upon receipt of advice from them he would grant the application.

CUBAN AFFAIRS.

The Castanon Murder—An Abrupt Conclusion to the Trial—Important Engagements—Capture of Cuban Artillery—Additional Executions.

From Our Own Correspondent.

HAVANA, Saturday, May 14, 1870.

The city has been kept alive with several sensational items, of which the first was extremely disgusting to the Spaniards, and the last equally agreeable. Key West furnished the first sensation, and if the account published in the Diario is correct in every particular, and there is no reason to doubt its accuracy, we must come to the conclusion that to a certain extent the Spaniards have a right to grumble. The examination of the Castañon murder case was fixed by the Grand Jury at Key West for the 10th inst., and a telegram was sent to Havana a few days previous announcing this fact, in order to advise the principal witnesses, who reside here, to present themselves in Key West. These witnesses feared meeting with violence at the hands of the Cubans residing in Key West, and the acting Captain-General sent a telegram to Washington asking the Government to afford protection to the witnesses. This action of the authorities appears over-cautious, and perhaps foolish to persons in the United States, who undoubtedly would inquire what business the Government at Washington had to meddle in the affair; but such is not the true view to be taken of the case, the Spaniards being accustomed to have their superior Government do and order everything for them. In Cuba the Captain-General is autocratic, and can at any time annul the action of the Courts in criminal cases, and even many civil cases have to be submitted to him, while he can at any time take a case, even then undergoing investigation, away from the Judicial Courts and try it himself. Recurring to the subject proper, the Castañon trial, as no answer had been received from Washington, and as the Key West Grand Jury made no inquiries and refused to wait, they simply discharged the prisoners connected with the Castañon murder for want of proof. Leaving all political feelings or sympathies aside, it appears very strange that no testimony was forthcoming to implicate the prisoners, and we must come to the conclusion that the real culprits were those who escaped, (?) and that the rest were mere lookers on. At any rate, the Key West Grand Jury might have deferred action until they had been informed whether the Havana witnesses were coming or not. Assassination is always a crime, and never a political offense.

IMPORTANT ENGAGEMENT.

Since the capture of Fort Asiento by Gen. GOYENECHE, no engagement of any magnitude has taken place, except that which has just been effected by Major MONTANA, who left Santa Cruz for Tana, killing sixty-five insurgents in various encounters on the way, his principal assistance being the Cuban volunteers, (not Spaniards,) who acted as guides and advanced posts. At Tana several salt works were destroyed, the Spaniards losing one killed and another wounded, proceeding from there to Najaro. On the 3d an engagement took place, when JUAN SUAREZ, second in command of the Cuban troops, and five more, were killed. On the 5th MONTANA reached La Bermeja, a very strong natural position, where he expected to meet with insurgent forces. He was not disappointed as a musketry fire was soon heard toward the front, and of a sudden a shot from a cannon, which he did not expect. MONTANA made a short speech to his men, told them that they must not permit that cannon to be fired again, and that it must be captured at all hazards. The soldiers then advanced at a double quick, MONTANA leaving his baggage behind guarded by fifty men, when the insurgents withdrew their piece from the front of the entrenchment, and opening into platoons formed on both sides of the road. The Spaniards continued to advance, the Cubans retreating in order, trying to reach some heights where they expected to make a stand. This troops could only move slowly, as the firing, although desultory, was incessant, and if the Cubans were only decent marksmen the Spaniards would have lost heavily; but all the shots went over their heads. The movement continued until 2 in the afternoon, when the Cubans reached the mountain, the Spaniards moving forward in a solid mass without firing a shot, following the footprints and ruts left by the wheels of the cannon, the Spaniards being without artillery. At times it was difficult to discover the track, but the Cuban guides soon found it again, MONTANA himself being well acquainted with the territory. The soldiers were suffering terribly from thirst, and looked as if they could not march any further, when at 4½ a shout and some shots were heard on the right. Assistance was sent, and Capt. TIRON, who commanded on the right, was found in possession, not of one, but of two cannon, with all the train belonging to it, five Cuban artillerists lying dead on the ground. One of the guns was that which the Cuban General ANGEL DEL CASTILLO captured on the 7th of August last from the Spanish Colonel PORTAL at Morou, when PORTAL was killed and over three-fourths of his command killed or captured. CASTILLO, who was killed at Lazaro Lopez, was one of the ablest and most promising officers of the Cuban forces. The other gun was a United States mountain howitzer, with the letters U. S. and T. J. on it, and was called the Tomas Jordan. The first soldier who laid his hand on the captured pieces was a Cuban named FRANCISCO AGRAMONTE, belonging to the Santa Cruz volunteers. On the morning of the 6th they moved forward, capturing and destroying a factory where swords and ammunition had been made. They then intended to cross the Najara River. The Cubans were on the other side, undoubtedly intending to defend the pass, when MONTANA ordered the captured artillery to the front, and soon drove them away with a few discharges, after which the troops crossed without being molested, the Contra guerrillas always in the front. But half a league from the river, and in the woods, the Cubans made a desperate attack to recapture the cannon. A hand-to-hand combat ensued, the Cuban machete clashing against the Spanish bayonet. The Cubans were reported losing sixteen killed and many wounded, and the Spaniards five killed. The troops rested there until the morning of the 7th, when the Cubans appeared again, firing at a long distance and without effect, in the vicinity of Callejon de Pasheco. The counter guerrillas flanked a small party and killed six Cubans. On the afternoon of the same day the troops caught a bearer of dispatches from Col. O'RYAN, who expressed his regret and inability to take part in the action, as his cavalry had no horses. This cavalry is undoubtedly that which lost its horses (eighty) a few days ago, the Spanish Col. AGUILAR having captured them. The Spanish account only gives two wounded, which is evidently false, as MONTANER himself acknowledges one soldier killed in the first encounter. MONTANER gives the Cuban loss at ninety-one killed, and supposes that many more died of wounds received. The captured artillery arrived this morning by the steamer Pajaro, and will be carried in triumph through the streets of Havana to-morrow morning.

MORE EXECUTIONS.

The Pajaro also brought the two brothers, GASPAR and DIEGO AGUERO, the companions of GOICOURIA, who were captured on Roman Key, to which they had crossed from Guajaba Key. The English or American Major who accompanied them died from starvation, the three pilots escaping. Some very queer reports are in circulation regarding the capture and denouncement of GOICOURIA, and even strong Cuban sympathizers express some exceedingly peculiar ideas. Until I have some proof that they are true, however, I shall not communicate them. The foreigner who died was not O'RYAN. The AGUEROS were taken to jail, and thence to Fort Principe. The Court-martial is now in session, and as its sentence cannot be doubtful, the rabble of Havana will be afforded the spectacle of another execution at 3 this afternoon. The only man who treated the prisoners badly was Col. RAMON HERRERA, who marched them on foot from the jail to Fort Principe, in order to show off. The prisoners were worn out with fatigue, and compelled to rest twice on the road. The authorities, though, had given the Colonel strict orders to take them in a carriage, and to avoid display.

The new Constitution of Illinois provides that "every person" who obtained a certificate of naturalization before Jan. 1, 1870, shall be entitled to vote, and as the Naturalization laws admit of the naturalization of women, there are those who contend that such women can vote under this clause.

The Yale Navy thinks of changing its name to the Yale University Boat Club. The shell races are to take place on Lake Saltonstall on Tuesday of Presentation week, June 28. The prizes for the six-oar shells will be $75 and $25; for double sculls, $25; for single sculls, the Southworth cup.

Mr. and Mrs. FOSTER CLARK, of Skaneateles, celebrated their golden wedding on the evening of the 9th inst., at the house of their son, who, with his wife, at the same time celebrated his silver wedding. Both families were present entire, the family circle not having been broken by death in fifty years.

The Delhi (Delaware County) Express expresses much pleasure at the appointment of Hon. LEWIS KINGSLEY, of Norwich, Chenango County, to be Deputy Naval Officer at this port, and says that the appointment will gratify in no small measure the people of all that section of the State.

The Rochester Express says Gov. SANFORD E. CHURCH has Presidential aspirations, and it thinks that if the Democratic wire-pullers imagine they have safely rid themselves of him for a series of years they will soon find themselves woefully mistaken. His "popularity" is to be used against them next time.

Some of the Republicans of Sumter County, S. C., have published a card saying that town meetings in various localities have pledged their support to Mr. WHITTEMORE for re-election to Congress, and that they, therefore, see no reason why a convention should be called to nominate a candidate, their choice being fixed and announced.

The Cincinnati Enquirer is laboring under the delusion that the majority for Judge GROVER, at the election in this State on Tuesday, was largely increased by the popular belief that he favors repudiation of the war debt. After making the statement, it sagely remarks: "A word to the wise is sufficient." But, apparently, the Enquirer is not published for that class of people.

A San Francisco merchant who had an unsalable article consigned to him from the East, got his personal friends together, assigned each a street, and instructed them to call at every store and inquire for this particular article. Then he advertised the goods and the retail dealers, surprised at the unusual call which had been made for them, took them all off his hands at a high price.

The Boston Traveller says that a member of a Massachusetts House Committee was offered $20,000 to sign a certain report, and subsequently made a full explanation to his colleagues thus: "I went home the other night, and after HARRIET and I had retired says I, 'HARRIET, which had you rather have me to do, bring home to you $20,000 for pin money, or an honest husband?' Says she, 'THOMAS, an honest husband.'"

Alleghany, Penn., has been considerably agitated the most of the week over the trial of Rev. J. B. CLARK, D. D., for breach of promise of marriage, which ended in his being rebuked by the Presbytery. In his last letter (he wrote but ninety-nine) to the lady first interested in his suit for her hand, and subsequently in the suit against him for breaking the engagement, he ungallantly said: "Woman is called man's helpmeet, but how often is she little more than help eat!" A "help eat!" Was ever such slander on woman uttered by reverend doctor before?

Fire Department Inspection—The Proposed Appointments.

All of the Fire Commissioners, accompanied by Chief Engineer PERLEY, were engaged during the whole of yesterday in visiting the various engine-houses, making a personal inspection of the apparatus and force. As yet the Commissioners have made no changes in the officers of the Department, but it is understood that they will speedily act in the matter. Among the first appointments will be that of a Chief Engineer, and it is stated upon good authority that the position has been promised by Mr. TWEED to one HENRY CLOSE, who was foreman of "Big Six" in the ruffian days of the old Department. The selected person has never belonged to the new Department, and consequently having had no experience whatever in managing steam fire apparatus, it is presumed that the appointment is made solely from political considerations. The Ex-Chief, KINGSLAND, who is a Democrat, and thoroughly competent for the place, has been crowded out of the race for some reason known only to the politicians. The new programme seems to have been arranged by Mr. TWEED, who is not publicly known as a Fire Commissioner, but that fact does not appear to make the arrangements which are said to have been made, less likely to be carried out.

THE TURF.

The Fashion Course Spring Meeting—Third Day's Trotting—Lady Augusta Wins the 2:34 Purse—Postponement of the Second Race.

Yesterday was the third day of the Spring Trotting meeting on the Fashion Course, and the attendance was larger than on the previous days. This is to be attributed to the attention which the Press reports of the excellent trotting enjoyed on the first and second days have called to the meeting in progress. Notwithstanding the heavy rain which fell the preceding night, the track was in fair order, having dried up rapidly under the warm rays of the sun which broke out at mid-day, and although soft and holding in some spots, on the whole the going was tolerable. There were two races announced, but owing to the state of the course, the proprietor judged it expedient to postpone the most important trot, that for the $1,000 purse, for horses that never beat 2:24. The one which was trotted was for the $1,000 purse for 2:34 horses, the entres for which were as follows: J. DOTY's b. m. Lady Augusta J. LOWETT's b. m. Lady Franklin, D. MACE's b. m. Tempest, J. MURPHY's b. m. Lady Murphy; M. RODEN's br. g. Penobscot Chief, and W. H. SAUNDERS' b. m. Experiment. The last-named was withdrawn, leaving the above five horses to contend for the purse, of which the winner took $600, the second horse $300, and the third $100. As will be seen from the subjoined report, Lady Augusta, after trotting and winning two heats, was protested against by Mr. HUMPHREYS, the owner of Tempest, on the ground that she had trotted a heat at Eatontown last year in 2:33½, and that she was consequently ineligible to trot in a race which was for horses that never beat 2:34. This was positively denied, both by the gentleman owning Lady Augusta and her trainer and driver, J. DOTY, but the objection being sustained by the evidence of other parties, the judges allowed the mare to start, leaving the onus probandi on the party making the protest, in accordance with the new rules on this point. Lady Augusta won the third heat and the race, but the purse, as well as all pools and bets, remain in abeyance. One of the judges, in his ignorance, ordered all bets and pools to be paid, but his more experienced and impartial colleagues directed the pool-seller to await the decision of the protest before paying, or he would thus become personally responsible in the event of the objection against the winner being sustained. From what we could learn on the disputed point, there appears to be no strong evidence in support of the protest, and we think the backers of the winner will eventually receive their money.

FIRST HEAT.—In pools, RODEN's entry, Penobscot Chief, was made a warm favorite, selling for $160; Tempest for $100; Lady Augusta $90, and the field $20. Lady Augusta was the first to show in front after the word was given, the favorite being second, and Lady Murphy third. At the turn Lady Augusta broke when alongside the Chief, but although she lost her lead for a moment, she quickly caught and resumed it, passing the quarter-pole a length ahead of RODEN's horse, who was on a run at that point, Lady Murphy being third, and Tempest next; time 38¾ seconds. Going along the far side, DOTY and RODEN were head and head for some fifty yards, but then Lady Augusta began to quit him, and she led him two lengths at the half-mile pole; the Chief being four lengths ahead of Lady Augusta, and Lady Franklin last; time—1:15¾. On the Flushing end Lady Augusta broke, but catching quickly, continued her lead to the turn into the homestretch, where four lengths separated her from Penobscot Chief, who was six lengths before Ladyy Murph; Tempest half a length behind the latter, but on a run. Retaining her lead home Lady Augusta jogged across the score a winner by four lengths; Penobscot Chief second, two lengths before Lady Murphy. Time—2:36¾.

SECOND HEAT.—Lady Augusta led when the judges gave the word, the Chief second, Lady Franklin, Lady Murphy and Tempest being their immediate followers. Lady Augusta held her advantage around the turn and to the quarter-pole, where she was two lengths ahead of Tempest, who led Penobscot Chief as far, the latter being on a break. Time—39 seconds. There was no change in these positions along the far side, and as the half mile was passed, in 1:17, Lady Augusta was leading two clear lengths, Tempest second and three lengths before Penobscot Chief, who had Lady Murphy on his wheel, and Lady Franklin on a run behind. On the Flushing end Lady Augusta broke, but, being a capital catcher, she was down in a moment to a square trot, and led the field three lengths at the head of the stretch; Tempest being fully as far before Lady Murphy, and Penobscot Chief last. Lady Murphy again left her feet at the distance stand, but she had plenty to spare, and striking a trot quickly she crossed the score a winner by two lengths; Tempest second, six lengths before Lady Murphy, who was four lengths ahead of Penobscot Chief. Time—2:36¾.

THIRD HEAT.—Any odds on Lady Augusta, against whom a protest was made just after the horses came out on the track for this heat. The judges, as above mentioned, allowed her to start under protest. Penobscot Chief took the lead, with Tempest, the favorite, and Lady Franklin side by side, and Lady Murphy on a run, when the word was given. At the turn, Lady Augusta was in front, and, out-trotting the lot, led them a clear length at the quarter-pole, with Lady Murphy, on a break, second; Tempest third, and Penobscot Chief last. Time—39 seconds. There was no change along the backstretch, and at the half-mile pole, passed in 1:16, the favorite was leading Lady Murphy three lengths, with Tempest as far behind the latter; Lady Franklin fourth, and Penobscot Chief last. The heat was now virtually over, for Lady Augusta came away and won in the easiest of jogs up the stretch, with Lady Franklin second, three lengths before Tempest, and Penobscot Chief, the original favorite, last of all. Time—2:36¼.

Today the postponed trot for 2:24 horses for a purse of $1,000, is to take place. The entrus are the four famous fast horses, Idol, J. J. Bradley, Surprise and Western New-York. It is certain to be a most exciting race and well worth witnessing.

The game at the Union Grounds yesterday between the above Clubs resulted in the defeat of the Eckfords by a score of 22 to 8. A large number of spectators were present, and much interest was manifested in the game notwithstanding its onesidedness. The decisions of Mr. WALKER were prompt and gave general satisfaction. The first game of the match at chess between Capt. MCKENZIE and Mr. FREDERICK PERRIN was contested yesterday before a numerous assembly of chess-players. The game was played on even terms, and Capt. MCKENZIE had the advantage of the first move. After a spirited contest of three hours' duration, the game was drawn.

The stipulations of this match are, that the winner of the first seven games shall be the conqueror. In half of the games Capt. MACKENZIE is to give pawn and move to Mr. PERRIN, and in the other half the games are to be played on even terms.

Police Trials—A Remarkable Steam-Boat.

Twenty-five patrolmen were arraigned before Commissioner BOSWORTH yesterday, of whom fifteen were charged with neglect of duty, eight with violations of the rules, and two with improper conduct. The only case having any general interest was that of GEO. W. WINTERS, pilot of the Harbor Police steamer Metropolitan, who was charged with carelessness in running into the bark Excelsior, off the Battery, whereby both the bark and steamer were considerably damaged. But the pilot averred that the accident was not due to carelessness, but was wholly owing to the wonderful qualities of the marvelous Police steamer, by virtue of which she persistently refuses to pay the slightest attention to her helm, and habitually "wobbles," making more leeway than headway. Judge BOSWORTH did not seem disposed to concede her possession of those extraordinary gifts, and said she had been so very "prudent" that [illegible] surprising that she has [illegible]. The case of the pilot was referred to the Board.

THE PUBLIC PARKS.

Important Meeting of the New Commissioners—Fat Places for Subordinates—Appointments—An Extensive Parade-Ground to be Provided—Committees.

At the meeting of the Department of Public Parks, on Thursday, the Board, in perfecting its organization, determined not to change the personnel of the principal employes in the conduct of the work at the Central Park and the various other works under the control of the Department, and to forward with energy and dispatch the works intrusted to their care free from political control or influence over those in their employ.

Commissioner HILTON, from the Committee on By-laws, presented the following report submitting a code of by-laws for the government of the Department and its employes, which were adopted:

The Committee on By-laws and Ordinances have fully considered the subject referred to them of devising regulations to control not only the action of this Board, but also to regulate its method of doing business and so organizing it that through appropriate bureaus its duties may be simplified, and its orders and directions executed with certainty and dispatch.

With this view, while retaining in the Board supreme control of all matters within the duties of the Department, we have deemed it highly desirable to have every employe feel the responsibility of his position, and so far as the chief officers are concerned, to impress upon them the necessity for the exercise of their best personal attention and judgment in the performance of their duties.

To accomplish this we believe it will be advisable to give each chief of bureau an individuality, and lead him to feel that success in his efforts will redound to his personal fame and honor, while inattention and failure on his part will lead to disapproval and dismissal.

No greater spur to ambition can be devised in perfecting a great public work, like the parks and places committed to our charge, than to make each prominent employe feel that his success is bound up with it, and that its failure will be attributed to his inattention or want of ability.

In this spirit we have organized the various bureaus of the Department, and we believe that pursuing the course we suggest will lead to beneficial results.

Meetings of the Board will be held on Tuesday of each week, at 2 P. M.

The officers of the Board to be a President and Secretary.

There shall also be a Clerk to the Board, and other officers as provided for.

The President shall make all appointments on recommendation of members of the Board.

In this Bureau there shall be a Property Clerk, who shall have the general custody of the tools and property of the Department.

It shall be the duty of the Assistant Clerk to perform such duties as the Controller may require, and in the absence of the Clerk discharge the duties devolving on the Clerk.

No Chief of Bureau shall make any contract or incur any liability unless authorized by the Board.

The following standing committees, each to consist of two members to be appointed by the President: 1. A Finance Committee; 2. An Executive Committee; 3. An Auditing Committee.

The President shall be ex officio a member of all standing committees, and as such shall be Chairman of the Executive Committee. The Auditing Committee shall certify all bills and accounts.

The Executive Committee shall be charged with such duties as may be from time to time referred to it, and shall be authorized to execute all orders, directions and regulations of the Board and control and manage its affairs.

CRANE, Superintendent of the Central Park; IGNAZ A. PILAT, Chief Landscape Gardener; HENRY KOSTER, Captain of Central Park Police. Messrs. OLMSTED and VAUX, Chief Landscape Architects, advisory to the Board. The Engineer in Chief, in conjunction with the Chief Landscape Gardener, were directed to report, at the earliest day, plans for the improvement of the various City squares and places, excepting those already directed to be improved.

The Controller was directed to report the cost of each structure or building now upon the Central Park.

The Architect in Chief, the Superintendent of the Central Park and the Chief Landscape Gardener, were severally directed to report what works are now in progress under their direction, specifying particularly the structures now in course of erection, and the probable cost or expense necessary to complete the same, according to present plans and instructions.

Commissioner HILTON presented a code of ordinances for the government and regulation of the Central Park, which was adopted.

A resolution was adopted recognizing the necessity of a parade ground for the use of the First Division, N. G., S. N. The clerk was directed to notify all the officers of the Department that the orders of the Executive Committee are to be promptly obeyed and performed when communicated through any member or the clerk thereof.

Resolutions relative to proceeding with the proposed alterations of the City Hall Park, and as to filling up offices of the Board, were referred to the Executive Committee.

A communication from Messrs. OLMSTED, VAUX & Co., landscape architects, with a plan for the rearranging of the Sixth and Seventh avenue approaches to the Park at Fifty-ninth-street, were received and referred to the Executive Committee.

A report was received from M. A. KELLOGG, engineer in charge of the Boulevard work, in answer to a resolution of the Board as to furnishing a convenient roadway from Fifty-ninth-street to One Hundred and Eighth-street during the present season, which was ordered printed in document form.

The Board then adjourned.

Investigation of the Charges Against District-Attorney Morris.

The Committee appointed last week by the Board of Supervisors, to investigate the rumor that District-Attorney MORRIS had misappropriated certain moneys set apart by the Board for the payment of an assistant clerk in his office, met yesterday afternoon in the rooms of the Board.

The case, as far as the evidence went, stands as follows: In the month of December last Mr. MORRIS was authorized to hire an assistant clerk, at a salary of $1,590; but instead of doing that he saw fit to hire one at $10 per week, and used the remainder of the salary to have other public business performed. The books of the office were produced by Mr. MORRIS, showing that not one cent of the money in question had been used for his own personal ends; he also invited the Committee to visit his room, where, he said, every cent of money drawn by him would be accounted for. As far as the clerk is concerned, it was shown that he was discharged in October for incompetency, and that Mr. MORRIS deducted $60 from his salary on that account; but even that transaction is registered on the books of the office. The question is simply this, "Had Mr. MORRIS the right, after having received authority to hire a man at $1,500 per annum, to employ a person to do the work for $500?"

The general feeling about the matter is that the charge is brought by the Attorney's political opponents, for the purpose of damaging his reputation in the eyes of the community.

The Committee will meet again on Tuesday next, at 2 P. M.

Lost Fenian Munitions of War—Action to Recover on a Policy of Insurance.

A suit has been commenced in the Superior Court, Trial Term, Part I., before Judge JONES and a jury, in which HERMAN FUNKE and others seek to recover from the Mercantile Mutual Insurance Company $15,000, under a policy issued by the defendant to Gen. STURM, on war materials shipped in 867 on board the schooner Samuel T. Keese, for Vera Cruz. The entire cargo insured by Gen. STURM was valued at over $50,000, and consisted of munitions of war, a great proportion of which was purchased from the Fenian leaders in this City. An action by Gen. STURM on a policy of another insurance company covering a portion of the cargo, was tried some time since in this Court, and a verdict rendered in favor of the plaintiff. The goods on which it is sought to recover in the present action were as follows: Seventy-four cases containing 1,480 Springfield rifled muskets, one complete 12-pounder brass battery, 100,000 Enfield cartridges, 200,000 metallic cartridges, 1,000 rounds 12-pounder fixed ammunition, and 504 rounds 24-pounder fixed ammunition. The cause is still on trial. Mr. DA COSTA and Mr. PARSONS appear for the plaintiff; Ex-Judge FULLERTON for the defendant.

President Larremore Not to Resign.

The report that Hon. RICHARD L. LARREMORE, owing to his election to the Common Pleas Bench, will at once resign his position as President of the Board of Education, is at least premature. No change will be made in the Commission at present. Should Judge LARREMORE find the discharge of the two duties too arduous, and a vacancy be occasioned by his resignation of the Presidency, the place will be filled by the Mayor, who, under the provisions of the new charter, has the power to appoint a successor.

A "Sharper" at New-Rochelle—A Hotel-Keeper the Victim.

A little sharp practice in the confidence line was carried out at New-Rochelle a few days ago by a man attired in the height of fashion, calling himself WALTER WOOD, a Wall-street lawyer. He put up at the hotel of Mr. ROBERT S. SPURGE, stated that he was about to visit Europe, accompanied by his wife, and made arrangements to have his three daughters, his wife's sister, a servant and a span of horses well provided for during his absence, for which accommodations Mr. SPURGE was to receive $236 per month. The fashionable guest was so delighted with New-Rochelle that he was induced to prolong his visit for some days, during which time he lived upon the best of everything that could be obtained, and thus ran up a bill of about $30, and ere the worthy host thought of presenting a bill for board, &c., the artful dodger handed Mr. SPURGE a check on the People's Bank of New-York for $235 as an advance payment for the board of his family, at the same time remarking that he would settle for his own board on going away. Mr. SPURGE, at the suggestion of his guest, at once proceeded to the City to get the check cashed. The next train conveyed to the City WALTER WOOD, the Wall-street lawyer, who is supposed to be now swindling some other good-natured landlord in like manner; for on presentation of the check at the Bank, it was, of course, pronounced to be worthless.

THE PRODUCE EXCHANGE.

Report of the Special Committee on Extra Assessment—Another Meeting to be Held to take Action Concerning It.

A meeting of the members of the New-York Produce Exchange was held at the Exchange Rooms, Whitehall-street, at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, to hear the report of the Committee appointed to investigate the matter of increasing the yearly assessment of members from $25 to $30, concerning which, as was reported in the TIMES a few days ago, there is much disagreement among the members. Col. EDWARD HINCKEN occupied the chair.

Mr. THEO. H. PERRY, Chairman of the Special Committee, read a lengthy report setting forth that the Committee had examined the books of both the Produce Exchange and of The Produce Exchange Company, and had compiled a table setting forth the number of members of the latter organization, the rents from sample boxes, disbursements, cost of improvements, &c., which would be submitted to members in printed form; that there had been paid into the treasury since the organization of the Exchange $430,898, from subscriptions and rent; that the Board of Managers had not for nine years past made to the Exchange any report of their financial proceedings, and hence the dissatisfaction existing among the members; that the number of members now is 2,003, and that the building (leased from the Trustees of the Produce Exchange Company) could be purchased from the Company for $300,000. The disbursements of the Exchange had increased from $2,875 in 1862-3 to $17,700 in 1869-70. The managers at first thought that an extra assessment would not be needed, but the increased expenditures, owing to the introduction of telegraphic apparatus into the building, the employment of a statistician at a salary of $4,000 per annum, the publication of the Price Current at a loss of about $2,000 annually, and other increase of disbursements, they found, rendered an increase of assessment necessary. The Committee recommend that, hereafter, the publication of the Price Current be confided to private enterprise. About twelve and a half per cent. has been the average annual earnings of the Exchange, but the cost of improvements, which will not have to be paid for again, has greatly reduced this amount before it went into the fund. The Committee go on to show how the present organization is an improvement on the old Corn Exchange system, in the fact that each member has only one vote, no matter how many shares he may hold. They recommend that in future there be a more general representation of all branches of the trade in the Board of Managers; and that the Board should impose no extra assessment without the consent of a majority of the members. The report closes with a series of resolutions, to the following effect:

That the managers of the Association should enact a by-law requiring the Treasurer to publish annually, fifteen days before the yearly election, a statement of the receipts and disbursements for the year, and that they request the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees to furnish a like statement as to the receipts and disbursements of that Board, to accompany the same.

That in the levying of any extra assessment a general meeting of the members be called, and that the managers be guided by its action.

That the managers ought to so adjust the expenses of the Exchange that hereafter the yearly subscription price should not exceed $25, and that the subscription for the present year be fixed at $27 50.

That, as to retaining the services of the statistician, the managers should be governed by the opinion of the members, as expressed in public meeting.

The report was accepted.

Col. REED said that the matter was a most important one, and, as some radical changes were proposed by the Committee, he moved that 2,500 copies of the report and resolutions be printed and circulated among the members, in order that they might give them a careful and thoughtful consideration. The motion was carried, and

The meeting then adjourned to Wednesday next, at 1 P. M.

The Value of a Leg—Suit to Recover $20,000.

In the Superior Court, Trial Term, Part II., before Judge MONELL and a Jury, JOHN TOOMEY, a hack-driver, has brought a suit in which he claims $20,000 from the Old Dominion Steamship Company. The plaintiff was, during the month of September, 1868, injured on the defendant's dock. It appeared that the plaintiff, having left his carriage on the street, was hurrying to enter the defendant's dock to solicit passengers. Just as he was approaching the entrance gate, it was being let down, and in attempting to press through, the descending gate slipped and fell on him, causing a scalp wound and a fracture of the leg, by reason of which he was disabled for four months and still complains of disability. Plaintiff's case was proved by the agents of the defendant, and the testimony being in, the Court, on motion of defendant's counsel, dismissed the complaint on the ground that the testimony failed to fasten negligence on the defendant, and also failed to show affirmatively a want of negligence on the part of plaintiff.

The Surrogate's Court—Another Contested Will Case Disposed Of.

The argument in the matter of the contested will of JACOB ROGALINER, which has for the past few weeks occupied the attention of the Surrogate, almost to the exclusion of other business, was concluded yesterday, the respective counsel in the case summing up. JACOB ROGALINER was a merchant doing business in this City. Upon opening his will, made just previous to his death, it was found that his widow, a second wife, and her children, were entirely cut off by the terms of the instrument, and the property, amounting to some $10,000, devised to the testator's two sons, the issue of a former marriage. The will is contested by the widow, on the ground of incapacity, caused, it was attempted to be shown, by epileptic fits, and also that the deceased was unduly influenced in his action. A number of creditors of the estate will be pleased to hear that the case is concluded, as during its progress they have been exceedingly clamorous for their money. HOMER A. NELSON, Secretary of State, and J. S. RITTERBAND are the lawyers for the proponents, and Ex-Judge E. J. BEACH appeared for the contestants. The Surrogate reserved his decision.

Sheridan, the Wife Murderer—Habeas Corpus.

An application was made yesterday to Judge CARDOZO, of the Supreme Court, by Mr. EDWIN JAMES, for a writ of habeas corpus to bring up the body of THOMAS SHERIDAN, to the end that he may be released on bail, or for such other relief as the Court may see fit to grant. SHERIDAN, it will be remembered, stands charged with having murdered his wife by shooting her while she was in her room with another man.

The Court granted the writ and made it returnable this morning, at which time it is proposed to bring up the testimony which was taken on the Coroner's inquest.

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT—SOUTHERN DISTRICT.

ALLEGED DETENTION OF A LETTER.

The United States vs. Lewis Chapman.—This was an indictment against this defendant, who was formerly a letter-carrier, for having on Oct. 5, 1869, unlawfully detained and embezzled a letter addressed to Mrs. Ernestine Hoffman, No. 11 Chrystie-street, and containing a check for $237. The indictment contained seven counts, some of which charged the offense against the defendant in his official capacity, and others charged it against him as a private person. On six counts, which charged the prisoner with embezzlement, a felony, he could have been imprisoned for ten years; while on the fifth count, which charged him with wrongfully detaining the letter, a misdemeanor, the most severe sentence could have been but six months' imprisonment. For these defects in the indictment, counsel for the defense moved that the prosecution be compelled to elect on which count they would proceed, and by consent of the District-Attorney, it was agreed to proceed upon the fifth count only. Edward Withren, for the prosecution, testified that he was Superintendent of the Post-office; that complaint was made to him by Mrs. Hoffman that a letter to her had been received at the Post-office, but not delivered to her; that the letter was found, somewhat torn, in the place for letters whose owners could not be found, and that the defendant, when asked, said that Mrs. Hoffman did not live in the house to which the letter was directed, and that he could not be sure that she was the proper person to deliver it to. Mrs. Ernestine Hoffman testified that she did not live at No. 11 Chrystie-street when the letter came, but that learning that the defendant had called at Chrystie-street with a letter for her, and meeting him in the Bowery, she demanded the letter and the defendant refused to give it to her, and afterward, at her house, demanded $5 as the condition of delivering it. On the cross-examination of this witness she did not appear to be of very good character. The defense introduced numerous witnesses to testify to the good character of the accused, also a Mrs. Van Hannan, who testified that she was within hearing at the time of the interview between the defendant and Mrs. Hoffman; that the latter was very violent, and that no such demand as Mrs. Hoffman testified to was made by the defendant. The defense claimed that the letter was not delivered because the defendant could not be certain that the person claiming it was, in fact, entitled to it, and that the break in the envelope was made by the strap used by the defendant to secure the letters in a bundle. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

Assistant District-Attorney Jackson for the Government, Charles S. Spencer for the defendant.

COMMON PLEAS—GENERAL TERM.

Before Chief-Justice Daly, and Judges Loew and Van Brunt.

PRACTICE IN CIVIL DISTRICT COURTS—THEY HAVE JURISDICTION IN ACTIONS AGAINST FOREIGN CORPORATIONS HAVING A PLACE OF BUSINESS IN THE CITY OF NEW-YORK.

Michael Ahern vs. The National Steam-ship Company.—The decision in this case, made on appeal by the Common Pleas at General Term, will prove of interest to lawyers and litigants. The appeal was from the judgment of the First District Court. The plaintiff, a resident of the City of New-York, brought the action to recover the value of certain work, labor and services performed by him for the defendant, a foreign corporation, created by act of Parliament, but having a place of business in the City of New-York. On the return day of the summons the defendant appeared by counsel, and objected that the Court had no jurisdiction in such actions. The objection was overruled by the Justice, and the defendant withdrew from the case. The plaintiff thereupon proved his case, and the Justice rendered judgment in his favor for the amount of his claim. The defendant appealed to this Court. The appeal was argued by John Chetwood for the appellant, and by William C. Clifford for the respondent.

LOEW, J., in delivering the opinion of the Court, says: The only question to be determined by us on this appeal is whether the District Courts in the City of New-York have jurisdiction in actions against foreign corporations. It has been held by this Court, that a foreign corporation like the defendant, cannot be compelled to appear in those Courts, and that they have no jurisdiction over such corporations unless they do appear and plead to the merits. (Paulding vs. Hudson Manufacturing Company, 2 E. D. Smith's, 38.) That decision was was rendered before the passage of what is generally known as the District Court act, (Laws of 1857, chapter 344,) and unless that act, or some other act amending the same, can be construed as conferring such jurisdiction on those Courts, this judgment must be reversed. The only provisions of the act referred to bearing on the subject, are subdivision 2 of section 4, which prescribes in what district a suit against a corporation must be brought, and subdivision 1 of section 14, which directs how service of the summons shall be made in such actions. In addition, the provisions of the code in regard to service of process on corporations are by virtue of section 48 of the District Court act, and subdivision 15 of section 64 of the code made applicable to these Courts. The Legislature does not in any of these provisions, in express terms, give those Courts jurisdiction in actions against foreign corporations. The act simply speaks of corporations without declaring whether domestic or foreign corporations or both are meant. And, although, upon a careful examination of the phraseology of some of the provisions referred to, they would seem to indicate that it was the intention of the Legislature to confer jurisdiction on these Courts in suits against foreign as well as domestic corporations, still it has always been my impression that the legislative intent is not expressed sufficiently clear to justify inferior Courts like those in assuming jurisdiction over such corporations. And I would still feel inclined to deny this power to them now, if we were compelled to base our decisions upon the provisions referred to alone; but by section 23 of an act passed in 1862, it is provided as follows: "No person who shall have a place of business in the City of New-York, shall be deemed to be a non-resident under the provisions of this act." (Laws of 1862, chap. 484, sec. 23.) Although this act is entitled "An act in relation to the Courts in the City and County of New-York;" and though some of its provisions relate to the Marine Court, and others to the appointment of and proceedings against the Marshals of the City of New-York, still it relates in the main to the practice, &c., in the District Courts. And I think it is obvious that the Legislature intended that this twenty-third section should apply to the District Court act. The three preceding sections amend certain sections of that act, and unless the words "this act," in the twenty-third section, are construed to mean the District Court act, the section is meaningless and inoperative. It is the duty of Courts to construe legislative enactments so as to carry out the intentions of the makers of the law, even though such construction be in conflict with the strict letter thereof. (People vs. Utica Insurance Company, 15 John, 358; Tonnele vs. Hall, 4 Comstock, 140; Reno vs. Pindar, 20 New-York, 301.) No person, therefore, having a place of business in the City of New-York is to be considered or deemed a non-resident under the provisions of the District Court act. Now the word person may be construed to include a corporation. (People vs. May, 27 Barb, 238; State of Indiana vs. Woram, 6 Hill, 33; People vs. Utica Insurance Company, 15 John, 358; Parker Mills vs. Commissioners of Taxes, 23 New-York, 242.) But we are not called upon to determine whether or not the Legislature intended to extend the word person as used in the District Court act, to a corporation. By section 80 of that act it is expressly declared that the word person shall include a corporation as well as a natural person. It would seem to follow that a corporation having a place of business in the City of New-York, shall not be deemed a foreign or non-resident corporation. I have, therefore, although not without some hesitation, come to the conclusion that a District Court has jurisdiction in an action against a foreign corporation that has a place of business in the City of New-York. Suits may be brought in these Courts by and against non-resident natural persons, and I know of no good reason why the jurisdiction given them by the Legislature, in actions against corporations, should be limited to domestic corporations, when by legislative enactments we are clearly warranted in holding that it extends to foreign corporations as well. Moreover, it would be a great hardship, if not a virtual denial of justice, to compel a party like the plaintiff, whose claim is less than $50, to resort to a Court of Record for redress. I think the judgment of the Court below should be affirmed.

CITY COURT—BROOKLYN.

Before Judge Thompson.

George W. Reed, &c., vs. Edward Lambert.—In this suit, noticed yesterday, the Court directed a nonsuit, on the ground that the testimony did not furnish sufficient evidence that there had been any perversion of the bonds by the defendant.

For plaintiff, Joshua M. Van Cott and George Rod. Dutton; for defendant, Henry C. Place and Daniel T. Walden.

FRIDAY, May 20—P. M.

As a general report, the Wall-street markets today were dull. There was some activity in Exchange for Saturday's steamers, and partial preparations made for shipping Gold to the extent of $500,000 or $600,000 in the shape of refined Gold Bars, withdrawn from the Assay Office. There was also employment for Gold, to the extent of $615,000, to pay Customs Duties into the Treasury. But, withal, the Gold Room was dull, the sales scarcely varying from 114⅛ ₱ cent. throughout the day, and the rates for Bills on London were no higher than yesterday—109½ ₱ cent. net@109½ less a small brokerage for 60 days, and 110@110½ for sight and short sight. The demand for Money was light, and the rates 4@5 ₱ cent. to the leading houses in Stocks on call loan. The Public Funds were steady on the 5-20s after the decline of yesterday following the large offerings to the Treasury. There was a demand for the 1867s at 114½, and for the 1865s at 113⅞@114 ₱ cent.

On the Stock Exchange the Southern State Bonds were in fair demand, and the prices something better than yesterday. The Railway market, influenced in some degree by the fall in Lake Shore yesterday, and continued heavy sales of the Stock today, was very much unsettled, and the lower tone of confidence betrayed on the side of the Bull party for a day or two past, has inspired the opposite party with courage to put out short contracts. There is no particular reason given for this change of feeling, beyond the suspicion that during the upward excitement of last week, which culminated on Thursday, May 12, a large amount of the Western Stocks was turned upon the weaker speculators of the Street by one or more of the Bull combinations, and while this operation was followed by stiffer figures for New-York Central and Reading, the Western list has not been able to recover its buoyancy, though several times this week showing signs of recovery. Today the weak spot was Lake Shore. There were also heavy sales of Rock Island at about 120@120½ ₱ cent., and a dullish feeling in the St. Paul Stocks. The impression was less unfavorable against the North-Wests and Ohio and Mississippi. New-York Central and Reading were comparatively steady. The Miscellaneous list was weak on the decline in Pacific Mail.

Late this afternoon Exchange was quoted 109¾@109¾, as above; Gold dull at 114⅛; the 5-20s of 1867 steady, 114¼; Money very easy, and the Railways quoted as follows, as compared with Thursday night:

The St. Paul Road earned for two weeks, in May, $292,000 as against $251,000 same fortnight last year. From the first of January the receipts are $1,899,927 against $1,917,952 in 1869 to date.

The week's imports of foreign dry-goods have been to specie value of $1,665,580; amount marketed, $1,823,274.

The Louisville and Nashville Railroad connects the two large cities from which it takes its name, and, with its branches in the State of Kentucky, in 390 miles long. The cost of the work and its present equipment has been over $16,000,000, which was mostly furnished by the cities and counties along the line. The road has been in successful operation for many years, and is doing a prosperous and steadily increasing business. The following is the income account for the fiscal year ending 30th of June, 1869:

| | |
|---|---|
| Gross earnings | $2,381,138 55 |
| Running expenses | 1,349,461 79 |
| Net earnings | $1,031,676 76 |

Comparative statement of earnings for six months, from July to December, 1869, inclusive, and corresponding six months of 1868:

| | 1868. | 1869. | Increase. |
|---|---|---|---|
| July | $147,077 | $195,391 | $48,313 |
| August | 182,418 | 244,133 | 61,714 |
| September | 206,083 | 279,216 | 73,132 |
| October | 213,844 | 292,700 | 78,856 |
| November | 208,601 | 271,055 | 62,454 |
| December | 217,283 | 254,140 | 36,856 |
| Total | $1,175,310 | $1,536,638 | $361,327 |

Increase, 30¾ ₱ cent.

As the road was built almost entirely by local subscriptions, the whole amount of its present bonded debt is but $2,211,000. The new Mortgage Bonds of the Company are advertised on another page as for sale by Messrs. DREXEL, WINTHROP & Co., and other Bankers.

Receipts today, — bales; exports, — bales. Mr. EMMET WELLS notices the week's business thus: "We have to report a quiet, though firm market, buyers evidently holding off for further developements of the new crop. An unusual destruction of old yards thus far this season, and the very small percentage of new bearing acreage, now settles the fact beyond dispute that we cannot begin to grow as many Hops this season as last, under the most favorable circumstances; and as discouraging reports from the Hop districts continue to come in, the small stocks, both in town and country, will be held with increased firmness. Not a bale of Hops cleared this port last week bound for England, and we hear of no freight engagements for the present week. This feature is the more important in view of the fact that it is the first week within a period of over two years that we have been able to report 'no exports.' The late prediction set forth in these circulars, that this export business must cease, is therefore being fully verified. A correspondent writing from Sherburne, N. Y., says: 'I have extended my tour of observation, and am being more convinced every day that the Hop acreage in Chenango and the adjoining County of Otsego will be reduced one-half or more. Within a day or two have conversed with some of the owners of large yards who say their Hops are not growing, and the vines, instead of running up the poles, shoot out in sprouts around the hill, having been stunted by the frosts of last Winter. In a section of Otsego County, where 200 bales were grown last season, forty-five acres, or three-quarters of the yards, are turned under. In and about Hartwick and Middleport the plowing has also been very extensive. There is no doubt in my mind that the growth in 1870, in this State, will be lighter than it has been in years.' Receipts of the week, 317 bales; receipts corresponding week last season, 910 bales; total receipts of the season, 98,244 bales; export clearances last week, none; exports corresponding week last season, 1,101 bales; total exports for the season from the port of New-York, 55,885 bales. Our London correspondent favors us with the following, under date of May 7: 'Our market must still be reported dull for most descriptions of Hops; our own growth especially, in spite of its scarcity, being hard to move, only a pocket here and there being taken to supply immediate requirements. The low price to which American Yearlings have fallen appears to have at length attracted buyers, and during the past week considerable sales have been effected of this class, at figures varying from 28s. to 46s. New Americans, however, still hang on hand, and are quoted from 56s. to 90s., without inquiry. Our growers are complaining of the plant being infested by flea; and although at this early period of the season unfavorable accounts have little or no influence upon our market, there can be no doubt that the plant has been much weakened by the severe frosts which have prevailed, and this attack of flea will tend to still further harass the plant.'"

LATHS—Eastern have been more salable at from $2 50@$2 60 ₱ thousand.

A change has been effected in the Portuguese Ministry through the agency of the army. The Duke of SALDANHA, at the head of a large body of troops in Lisbon, attacked the Castle of St. George and captured it, and afterward marched on the Royal Palace, where he encountered troops and artillery in position. After firing a few shots the soldiers broke ranks and fraternized. ### CONGRESS.

In the Senate, yesterday, the morning hour was taken up with a discussion of the House resolution for the final adjournment, on July 4. The debate resulted in the adoption of an amendment, by a vote of 35 to 21, fixing Friday, July 15, as the day. The consideration of the Fifteenth Amendment bill was then proceeded with, and continued until 5 o'clock, without action, when a recess was taken. At a long evening session, the subject was further discussed.

In the House various bills were reported from the Naval Committee; one for the relief of the officers and crew of the ship Nightingale, was passed, as was also the bill appropriating $190,000 from the Japanese indemnity fund for the compensation of the officers and men of the Kearsarge for the destruction of the Alabama. The amount already received for bounties is to be deducted. A similar bill reported appropriating $100,000 from the same fund in reference to the Wyoming for an action in Japanese waters in 1863, led to a long discussion, and was finally tabled by a vote of 71 to 50. The Louisiana Contested Election case—NEWSHAM against RYAN, was discussed for some time but not decided. The Senate amendment to the final adjournment resolution was concurred in. The remainder of the session was devoted to business from the District of Columbia. The House adjourned at 5½ P. M.

Blundering Legislation.

It is undoubtedly necessary to give effect by legislation to the Fifteenth Amendment, but a grave blunder will be perpetrated if this purpose be made a pretext for creating fresh disabilities, or for enacting penalties more harsh and vexatious than the circumstances of the case require. The equality of political rights now guaranteed by the Constitution may surely be secured in practice, without casting imputations upon a large proportion of the Southern people, or contributing to the alienation of races in the Southern States. The South itself has a better appreciation of its needs than Senator MORTON lately evinced when he sought to revive the passions which should be buried with rebellion, and to infuse into the legislation of today the spirit we associate with the agitated counsels of the reconstruction crisis. Events are no longer favorable to partisan intolerance. You cannot read a man out of the Republican Party because he advocates amnesty; you cannot call for his excommunication because he protests against the continuance and multiplication of political disabilities. The declaration of the Convention which nominated GRANT forbids any such violent methods. The acts and the recommendations of those through whose agency reconstruction was achieved, constitute a protest against further proscription in any form.

The Republicans of the South have honored themselves in nothing more than in the moderation—a moderation in some instances amounting to magnanimity—with which they exercised the power conferred upon them by law. They had the opportunity, in the formation of the State Constitutions, and in the measures which legislative majorities subsequently enabled them to pass, of imposing tests and qualifications that would have produced extensive disfranchisement. The conditions under which they met for the performance of their duties were calculated to develop the bitterest temper. But wise and generous instincts triumphed. Those whom Congress had suddenly invested with great power, used it in the interest of peace. They sought to protect themselves in the exercise of their rights, but they made no assault upon the rights of others. The result was that, with scarcely an exception, the new Constitutions are models of fairness and moderation. Even where colored votes were all-powerful, as in South Carolina, the organic law is free from proscriptive taint. The Republicans of the State were content with equal rights,—they have not sought power at the expense of their neighbors; and one of their exponents at Washington, Senator SAWYER, is the zealous and consistent champion of a policy of amnesty and peace. The Mississippi Republicans are not behind in the good work. The harsh provisions of their new Constitution they expunged at the polls; they have formally appealed to Congress for the removal of the disabilities which it imposed; and their Senator, REVELS, with the cruel wrongs of his race fresh in his memory, demands amnesty for his own State, where, as he testifies, the people are "harmonious and prosperous."

Facts of this nature should shame into silence the spirit that would not only keep alive the limited proscription which still exists, but would seek in the enforcement of the newly-ratified Amendment an occasion for other penalties. If this were the only method of maintaining peace we should hesitate to condemn it; for the sake even of amnesty we would not jeopardize security. We are persuaded, however, that the harmonious and prosperous condition of Mississippi, is in no small degree attributable to the generosity of the course pursued by the party that triumphed in Governor ALCORN's election; and in the experience of Mississippi we discern the forerunner of the genuine reconstruction which will be developed in other Southern States, when counsels like those of Senator MORTON lose their influence in the Republican Party.

Is Honesty the Best Policy—or Deception?

Old travelers used to tell a story of the ostrich which was not very complimentary to its intelligence. That interesting bird, when hotly pursued, was said to thrust its head deep into the sand. As it could not then see its enemies, it jumped to the conclusion that no one could see it. The plan was not a very good one, for the ostrich happens to be about ten feet in height, and in hiding its head it only concealed the least prominent part of its body.

Defective as these tactics are, they have been revived in as literal a form as possible by no less respectable a body of men than the Book Committee of the Methodist Church. Our readers recollect the story of the frauds which were discovered in the Methodist Book Concern. There could be no doubt about those frauds. They were brought home to the guilty parties as clearly as anything of the kind ever can be. But the majority of the Committee took alarm at the exposure. They were afraid of the "scandal"—not the scandal, observe, of allowing the funds of the establishment to be misappropriated, but only of having the wrong-doing made known to the public. So the "whitewashers" were called in. They set to work with pail and brush to cover up the ugly spots which had suddenly been brought to light. They said to the public, in substance, "We have been cheated by some of our servants, but it is better not to say anything more about it. We will put up with the loss quietly, rather than run the risk of weakening the confidence of the great body of Methodists in the Book Concern." This was the first attempt to hide their heads in the sand, under the delusion that no one would be able to see them.

Now it happens that a very honest man was and is employed in the Book Concern as "Junior Book Agent." He is known to the public as Dr. LANAHAN. He it was who first discovered the malversation which was practiced in various departments of the institution. Of course he made many enemies by blurting out what he had detected. He has found out a good deal which some of his associates would rather keep quietly in the family—and it is desperately feared that he will yet find out much more of the same sort. Is not that a good reason for getting rid of him? If it is not, the Book Committee would be puzzled to adduce a better one. At any rate, Dr. LANAHAN is to be made away with—quietly "burked," as an honest man is apt to be who finds himself in a house where the other servants are not quite so scrupulous in their notions, and who exposes their true conduct to the chief employer. The Book Committee are summoned privately to a "hole and corner" meeting, where Dr. LANAHAN is to be accused of "slandering" the Book Concern, and where, it is hoped by the ringleaders of the plot, he will receive the punishment of the heinous crime of being faithful to his duty.

The Sub Committee of three clergymen who actually made the examination of the affairs of the Book Concern, all approve of Dr. LANAHAN's course. They saw quite enough to justify his charges. The presiding Bishop was also in favor of discharging the unjust stewards whose malpractices Dr. LANAHAN had discovered. But the majority of the Committee want to hush the matter up, and therefore they insist on the enfant terrible being sent out of the house. He tells all that he sees and hears, and in a mismanaged affair like the Methodist Book Concern nothing can be more disagreeable. The Committee wish first to suspend Dr. LANAHAN, and then to stave off the trial as long as possible. On the other hand, Dr. LANAHAN would naturally desire to be tried speedily, for some revelations might then be made which would further tend to justify his conduct, however other persons in the Concern might dread the results.

Such is the present state of affairs. All the Bishops, fifteen in number, are in favor of Dr. LANAHAN. The great body of Methodists must necessarily be on the same side, and now is the time for them to make their opinions known. If Dr. LANAHAN is to be sacrificed, the Book Committee will discover that, so far from burying a scandal, they have stirred one up which will make the most audacious of their number be glad to hide their shrinking heads from the public eye.

Adjournment of Congress.

At last we know the worst. The Senate, yesterday, amended the concurrent resolution sent from the House, fixing the day of adjournment for the 15th of July, instead of the 4th, and the House promptly agreed to the alteration. A motion to reconsider the resolution was subsequently laid on the table, thus making the decision final—so that definite calculations can now be made with reference to the work yet to be done, and the time remaining in which to do it. Within the next eight weeks both Houses must bring their deliberations to a close. When we consider the large amount of unfinished business on the calendar, and the important consequences to the commercial interests of the country which are involved, the interval seems brief; but it is to be remembered that most of the leading measures have been thoroughly discussed, and are as well understood now as they are likely to be if the whole Summer were devoted to them.

If Congress is disposed to address itself to practical business, all the essential legislation now pending can easily be disposed of before the middle of July. It is to be hoped that the warning we have had of the approaching heat will check the profuse eloquence of garrulous members, and induce them to expedite matters as much as is consistent with safety. Both Houses ought to take up the most pressing business first, and dispose of it while there is opportunity for reflection and prudent deliberation. In this category may be included all the Currency and Tax bills, the Georgia bill, and all legislation directly affecting business industries. These once out of the way, Congress might spend its unexpired time in miscellaneous work, and even in quarreling with each other over unsettled problems in philosophy and religion. We hope to see a greater disposition manifested for good, honest work, now that the end of the session is no longer among the uncertainties of the future.

Playing at Cross Purposes.

In accordance with general usage, the Republican Press is diligently striving to interpret the significance of the recent election, and to draw wisdom from the lesson which it presents. As yet we have observed but one point on which there is any general agreement, and that is with reference to the very general apathy existing in the party. Few attempts are made to explain why that apathy is unconquerable, or to point out a satisfactory remedy for it. The Tribune calls for a national election law which shall prevent fraudulent voting; it rebukes Republicans for staying away from the polls; it demands a reorganization of the party, without suggesting the means; urges that the State Convention shall be called before the first week in August, and that the best and strongest men shall be put in nomination; and, finally, that the State and County Committees shall be composed of "men who do not trade with the enemy."

These are fine words, but they have no practical significance. We already have an election law stringent enough to answer every requirement, if it were only properly enforced. This could be effected by organized Republican effort, if there existed sufficient enthusiasm to prompt that course. As for an early Convention and a long campaign, experience has demonstrated that the result is never materially affected by such a device; and that, except in a national canvass, the people are apt to become wearied, and the canvass damaged, by excess of political importunity. Of course it is wise to put up the best men as candidates, but not more wise now than it always has been. How are we to get rid of King Caucus, who frequently defeats the best men by means of corrupt management in the interests of unworthy individuals? Precisely what is meant by "trading with the enemy" we do not know, unless it be a bit of self-abnegation, inspired by the untoward result of certain recent negotiations in connection with the new charter. This hypothesis seems to be corroborated by the New-York Standard, which openly accuses Mr. GREELEY of a perpetual tendency to "dicker."

The fact is we must go behind all the suggestions of the Tribune to find the real explanation of the result of Tuesday's election, as well as to discover the means of preventing a repetition of the disaster in November. The truth is rapidly growing apparent that the Republican Party lacks harmony of thought, as well as efficient leadership. A great party, like a great army, must have both a cause and leaders in order to achieve success. The policy of the past, by which we have hitherto won victories, has been measurably merged in accomplishment, and out of that accomplishment has sprung a variety of new issues, which no one has yet attempted to deal with in a statesmanlike spirit. The Republican leaders in Congress, whose legitimate work it was to conduct the party, have utterly failed. Instead of rallying round the Administration, and co-operating with and strengthening it, they have been indifferent or hostile, while at the same time they have neglected the public service, and developed nothing but a conflict of policy, and a diversity of action, the first fruits of which were harvested in this State and Connecticut.

Central Park.

Yesterday the Commissioners of Public Parks held a meeting, Mr. PETER B. SWEENY presiding. Nothing was done which tends to justify the apprehensions of those who looked upon a change in the old Commission as a sure precursor of an era of chaos and jobbery. Mr. SWEENY has distinctly pledged himself not to permit any tampering with a property which the public values above all its other possessions. That he will be faithful to his word the meeting yesterday afforded a fresh guarantee. The Board decided not to make any alterations in the force now engaged in the Park, but to carry out all necessary works with strict fidelity, and without the least reference to political influence. None of the persons now employed are to be turned away because their politics do not happen to be the same as Mr. SWEENY's.

The organization of independent bureaus for the general management of affairs relating to the Park, is a measure probably devised for the purpose of facilitating business. Such an organization could be rendered extremely useful if properly administered—and it is only fair to presume that the Board will look carefully to that point. The City squares and parks are to be improved, and everybody knows that there is great room for improvement. The "landscape gardener" who has been placed at the head of a bureau, will find abundant room for all the talent and ingenuity he may possess. There is, altogether, every appearance of a desire on the part of the new Board to discharge their important trust in such a manner as to win the confidence of the public. The opportunity is a great one. Mr. SWEENY may be quite sure that he is in a position where faithful services will not be thrown away, and where mistakes will neither be overlooked nor pardoned. Central Park is the "lung" of New-York, and none of us could bear to see it come to any harm. Mr. SWEENY cannot but be well aware of the existence of this sentiment, and it would be doing him an unnecessary injustice to suppose that he has entered office with the deliberate intention of rendering himself the most unpopular man within a hundred miles of New-York.

Commissioner Wells and His Report.

The last report of Mr. DAVID A. WELLS fell like a bomb-shell in the camp of the ultra Protectionists. It was widely circulated through the country, and its clear statements of facts carried very general conviction, especially as its conclusions tallied with the general experience as to the necessity of a reduction of taxation. As was to have been expected, the various interests assailed lost no time in defending themselves, and took issue with Mr. WELLS on his statements of fact as well as his conclusions. He met them promptly, and in every instance substantiated his positions in a manner which challenged admiration not only of his industry, but of his acuteness.

It seems, however, that the special friends of some of the interests affected—especially the woolen, cotton and pig-iron interest—were not content to give up the contest at so great a disadvantage to themselves, and attempted quietly to steal a march on the Commissioner yesterday, by presenting an ex-parte report from the Committee on Manufactures, which they imagined could not be replied to in time to upset their case at the present session. We can imagine their surprise and chagrin at finding a strong and conclusive answer prepared by the Commissioner at the request of the minority of the Committee, which was ordered to be united with the majority report. A full statement of the facts will be found in our Washington dispatches, and a synopsis of the report is given in our Congressional report. The friends of a reduction of imposts and revenue are very naturally rejoicing over the result. It certainly was a shrewd move on their part, and cannot fail to have a salutary effect upon the issue of the protection struggle which has been going on so long in Congress. At the same time it affords the Commissioner a fair opportunity for a vindication of his statements and recommendations.

The National Wind-bag.

The Forty-first Congress seems determined to acquire the proud distinction of having distanced all its predecessors in performing the minimum of work with the maximum of talk. The public had rashly concluded that previous triumphs in this direction were such as to defy reproduction, and were beginning to expect some little arrears of business to be worked up, now that the exhausted energies of members were supposed to be unequal to further wrangling. But the mercurial temperament of loquacious legislators defies all ordinary calculation. It happened that the greater part of Thursday's session was taken up by a debate, in which every subject was discussed save the one actually before the House. The Committee on Appropriations was, to begin with, rather unfortunate in its spokesman, Mr. KELSEY,—who, with wonderful versatility, glided from a business-like statement of Consular charges, to a disquisition upon the secret service, San Domingo, Federal patronage, Tammany Hall, the Secretary of State, and the Solar System. The association of subjects was loose enough to satisfy the most daring imagination, but Mr. KELSEY was signally outdone by succeeding speakers. They rushed from the question of having a Resident Minister at Rome, into a discussion for which it would be difficult to find a parallel, embodying as it did references, more or less extensive, to Puritanism, Mohammedanism, LEO X., Know-Nothingism, the Old Testament, and Massachusetts witches, and ending with a scene which closely resembled a free fight.

This may be a very exhilarating pastime to the combatants and immediate on-lookers. It is even conceivable that a section of people may exist out of doors to whom Thursday's tilt between Massachusetts and New-York may have afforded a dull sort of gratification. But to the oppressed tax-payer, patiently waiting for relief, to the wearied ship-owner looking for intelligent legislation, to the revenue reformer, to the man of business,—in fact, to every sober and sensible member of the community, such an exhibition must seem a melancholy proof that Congress has, indeed, declined in intelligence as well as in dignity. If the affairs of the nation are to be conducted in a way that would disgrace a fourth-rate debating club, the sooner the country gives up all hope of rational legislation the less liable will it be to subsequent disappointment. There is no way of convincing our representatives that they have talked until everybody is weary of them. But now their days, so far as this session is concerned, are numbered. Will they give up scolding each other and think of the duty they owe to the country?

The Latest Anachronism.

Today there will be a concourse of young men on horseback who choose to call themselves "Knights," and who will endeavor to transplant from the sunny South the military pastime of the Middle Ages. The lists will be set at Prospect Park Fair Grounds, and the presiding lord of the jousts will be the Mayor of Brooklyn—not, perhaps, a perfectly satisfactory substitute for the "Queen of Beauty" who of old incited warriors to deeds of arms. Chivalry has not gone out with coats of mail, and unheroic as the age is by some deemed to be, we can yet show our calendar both of gentle and of daring deeds. "Young Harry with his beaver up, his cuisses on his thighs, gallantly armed," is such a sight as we cannot see again, but ever in Brooklyn it is thought that there is no reason why our youth should not emulate SHAKESPEARE's Prince of Wales in seeming fit "to wind a fiery Pegasus, and witch the world with noble horsemanship."

The usages of the pageant may appear to people of a utilitarian turn of mind like the husks of an extinct symbolism, yet perhaps there may be something in the very semblance of high-toned martial courtesy that is calculated to soften the manners and to elevate the ideal of personal intercourse. The gentlemen from Washington, from Maryland, and Virginia will be pardoned for any slight extravagances they may bring with them, should they succeed in leaving among us a taste for a graceful and healthy out-door pastime, in lieu of everlasting billiards. The revival of the tournament in the New World is rather a striking illustration of Mr. JOHN STUART MILL's theory that there is nothing new, even in the way of amusements, to be discovered, and that mankind henceforth is destined to return to worn-out grooves. The playthings of the Middle Ages are good enough for the enterprising youth of the nineteenth century.

Modern Amazons.

While Mrs. STANTON and her sisterhood are theorizing and disputing, other women are quietly but practically vindicating their equality with men in a sphere where women, since Queen ARTEMISIA, have been rare intruders. Among all the rights for which lady reformers clamor, we have never heard them claim the right to fight. The battle-field is almost the only field which their expanding spirit has not pined to enter. Yet here, too, man may some day have to dispute supremacy with his sister. We all know of Mme. ELIZA LYNCH's warlike exploits in Paraguay; and in our late war there were numerous instances of women, disguised as men, serving in the ranks and fighting with the bravest. One or two even attained to the dignity of shoulder-straps. Hitherto, however, their martial ability has been exhibited only in an executive capacity. They have fought, but they have not organized victory or planned campaigns.

If recent Washington news be true, this last wreath can no longer be denied them. Miss CARROLL, we are told, a respectable lady of Maryland, has presented to Congress a claim for compensation for planning the campaign of the Tennessee River. If the claim should be allowed, it is not easy to see the possible consequences. Women may prepare themselves to assert by force of arms the rights which men will not concede to reason. We shall have a female rebellion, with Miss CARROLL for its LEE, and Miss ANTHONY for its "Stonewall" JACKSON. And, as the ladies have the superiority in numbers, the result is likely to strike terror to the hearts of the oppressors. At the very least, the expanding spirit of womanhood will turn for recreation to the warlike sports in which men take delight. We shall have the right to do militia duty added to the privileges they demand, and Col. FISK's glory will be one day eclipsed when Col. Mrs. STANTON shall march down Broadway at the head of a reorganised Seventh. The "divine Theodora" of Mr. DISRAELI's novel is a type of the coming woman, and it is only to be hoped she will not seek to avenge the wrongs of centuries all at once. Things at present undoubtedly look very awkward for the superseded "lords of creation."

The history of negro emancipation is repeating itself in Cuba,—the Captain-General having issued an order conferring freedom upon the slaves of insurgents, and also upon slaves who have acted as guides to Spanish troops or otherwise aided the Spanish cause. Thus the first official blow at Cuban slavery takes the form of military necessity. That is the beginning of the end, so far as slavery is concerned. By and by the statesman will join the soldier, and Spain will decree emancipation. Even rebellion has its blessings.

There has been a Ministerial crisis in Portugal, and it was settled in a very summary fashion. The particulars will be found among our cable news this morning—but the story may be very briefly told. The Duke of SALDANHA was one of the "outs," and he wanted to be "in." It happened that the troops in Lisbon were on his side. He arranged his plans, and at a given time marched on the castle of St. George, which he took, and then prepared to attack the Royal Palace—which he would have taken, only that the two "armies" fell into each other's arms and embraced, instead of fighting. They shouted "Long live the King," and long live everybody except the obnoxious Ministry. The King came out, and at once entered into the spirit of the thing. SALDANHA was made Minister—and the Duke DE LOULE made the best of a bad job and resigned. He was only appointed to office last August. It is now the Duke DE LOULE's turn to storm the castle and the palace, and compel King LUIS to form a new Ministry in five minutes.

Mr. SCHENCK's announcement of the purpose of the Ways and Means Committee in regard to the reduction of taxes—following close upon the manifestation of a kindred purpose by the Senate Finance Committee—is hailed with satisfaction by the Republican Press. The only drawback to this satisfaction which we have noticed, is that which the TIMES has already indicated. The amount of the reduction proposed is in either case much too small. Neither of the measures goes far enough. "The least reduction which should be made," the Boston Advertiser justly says, "is fifty millions." If Congress and the Administration do their duty, that amount will be available for relief; and a year of ordinary prosperity will, after all, leave the Treasury in possession of an ample surplus. The Republicans in Congress will betray their trust if they do not push forward reduction at a more rapid rate.

Sixteen different street sections of the City are to be paved. If all the work were honestly done, we might soon have the reproach removed from New-York of being one of the worst paved cities in the world. Wooden pavement appears to command the situation, and it is to be hoped the unfamiliar Paul National, or the still more mysterious Hamar preserved-wood pavement, with which the furthest extremity of the greatly-abused Fifth-avenue is to be covered, are as well-approved varieties as the better-known Stafford and Nicolson. The use of Belgian pavement for the lower part of the City will be generally commended, while it is to be hoped for the sake of tortured horses and fagged pedestrians, that the process of relaying will shortly be witnessed outside of the line of First-avenue. But let us have no more "Fisk pavements" under other names.

The Bureau of Statistics sends us, by telegraph from Washington, the gratifying intelligence that American navigation interests are reviving. A new propellor of 1,492 tons has actually applied for registration from this City. Moreover, nine vessels, aggregating 1,932 tons, have applied for registration from Detroit. This is gratifying to our national pride, albeit two out of the nine rate 1,632 tons, leaving a tonnage of 300 tons for the other seven vessels, or an average of forty-five tons. Our emotions of thankfulness for this mosquito fleet—evidently wood barges for the Canada trade—are mingled with those of gratitude to our efficient Bureau of Statistics for thus promptly heralding the revival of American commerce.

The repudiating counties of Iowa have received another notification from Federal authority that the bonds issued in aid of railroads must be paid. The local Courts have done their utmost to shield the repudiators, and the State Legislature has given them encouragement;—still they must pay. In the United States Court at Des Moines, on Wednesday, Judge DILLON told them plainly that the people of the counties and municipalities concerned "must abandon all hope of escape from payment of those bonds." "They must be paid," he added, "and the officers of the Court will be sustained by the power of the Government." That is all right and proper. No State in the Union has been more bountifully assisted by the Government in the construction of its railroads, and none at this moment enjoys greater prosperity. The part it has for some time played as a repudiator is discreditable to its Courts, if not to its people.

A network of connections by which the New-York of the future will be bound to the outlying suburbs, has secured a second line of direction in the final signature of the Staten Island Bridge bill. Day by day the enormous pneumatic pile on which the Brooklyn tower of the East River Bridge is to be built, is being sunk into its place. In a short time the builders of the piled structure which is to be thrown across the shallows to connect by ferry with Staten Island, will be vying with their Long Island rivals in making secure their connection with the Metropolitan center. These are but the first steps in a series of works which will powerfully influence the distribution of population in the Empire City.

Promoters of Land-grant bills now before Congress commit an obvious mistake when they refuse all concessions to members who, though not hostile to the schemes themselves, insist that certain guarantees shall be obtained touching the administration of the lands to be bestowed, and of the railroads they are intended to succor. Where the issue is narrowed down to the point, "grant or no grant," compromise is of course impossible. But there should be a willingness to meet the views of members who merely express the prevalent feeling when they suggest the necessity of checks upon monopoly, consideration toward settlers, and good faith toward the moneyed classes who are relied upon to purchase the bonds. The time is not propitious for high-handed measures.

"LUCIA" AT THE ACADEMY.

The performance of "Lucia di Lammermoor," last evening, at the Academy, was one of the most curiously uneven to which we have ever listened. Harsh critics might say that none of the chief performers were quite equal to their parts, but such a statement would be only a half truth, and so would convey an impression both inaccurate and ungenerous. The fact is that Lucia is, as yet, a little too much for Miss MCCULLOCH; that Signor LE FRANC was in bad voice, and so failed to do that thorough justice to Edgardo which ordinarily will lie completely within his splendid powers to do; and that Signor PETRILLI, while taking great pains and deserving much credit, is not dramatic singer enough to give proper effect to Ashton. A natural consequence of these several and unlucky incidents was to impart to the representation an incompleteness, and, at intervals, a decided shortcoming, of which the audience were entirely conscious, and of which they were by no means reserved in showing their opinion. This said, we hasten to add that portions of the opera were very excellently sung indeed. This praise is fairly due to a great deal of the second, and to some of the best numbers of the third act. Miss MCCULLOCH was excessively nervous, and we must record the conviction that the manner in which her efforts were received in the first act, by some of the audience, was not quite warranted, and gave rise to the suspicion that artistic merit was not the only gauge by which public demonstrations were in some instances measured and distributed. The young lady has many qualities for success. Her execution is certainly faulty, and she has much to learn; but we have heard worse Lucias, and heard them more warmly received by intelligent audiences than was hers on this occasion. Signor LE FRANC was welcomed with the utmost enthusiasm. It was, however, early apparent that he was quite unfit to sing, and an apology made in his behalf after the second act only confirmed the persuasion already generally felt that the favorite tenor was struggling with difficulties he should not have permitted himself to encounter. The sestette in the second act was so well rendered as to elicit vociferous demands for its repetition, which, however, were unheeded. In the malediction Signor LE FRANC broke down, to universal regret and accompanied by universal sympathy. Afterward, and to make the unevenness of the entertainment as finally impressive as possible, the artist, in the last act, recovered his voice in the most unaccountable manner, and sang the aria "Bella Innamorata" with great charm. 'Tis not in singers, more than in any other mortals, to command success, but we must say that the principal performers on this occasion did all they apparently could to deserve it. This afternoon a matinée of "Il Trovatore" is given, with Signor BRIGNOLI and Miss KELLOGG, and on Monday the latter lady, with Signor LE FRANC, will appear in "Il Poliuto."

AMERICAN MUSICAL FUND SOCIETY.

A grand concert is to be given to-night, at the Academy of Music, by the American Musical Fund Society, for the benefit of their widows' and orphans' fund. We trust that the charitable public will not forget or disregard this appeal. In an artistic sense the concert is an admirable one. Among the performers who will assist are Mme. MANZOCCHI, Miss ANNA MEHLIG, Mr. S. B. MILLS, Mr. EDWARD MOLLENHAUER, the Arion Society, a grand orchestra under the direction of Mr. CARL BERGMANN, and Mr. THEODORE THOMAS. The programme includes selections from Cherubini, Von Weber, Liszt, Meyerbeer, Beethoven, Verdi, Rossini, Mollenhauer and Kreutzer. The evening's entertainment has been cleverly arranged, and, on its own merits, should prove highly attractive. We trust the nature of the occasion will supplement this so as to swell the attendance to the utmost capacity of the Academy.

CARLOTTA PATTI.

We are informed that in consequence of fatigue Miss PATTI will not give the farewell concert intended to occur to-night at Steinway Hall. We learn, however, that the lady will to-morrow night participate in a grand sacred concert at the Church of St. Mary of the Immaculate Conception, in Williamsburg, at the corner of Leonard and Remsen streets, of which Rev. JOHN R. McDONALD is the eloquent and zealous pastor. The object of the concert is to assist in paying off the debt of the church. Miss PATTI will be assisted by the principal members of her troupe

WASHINGTON.

Commissioner Wells and the Manufacturers' Committee—The Majority Surprised by the Minority—Mr. Wells' Defence—An Important Report—The New-York Collectorship—Duty on Tin—Miscellaneous.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The House Committee on Manufactures are in a state of ferment to-night. They have learned, some of them at least, that in their report submitted yesterday, they are literally "Hoist by their own Petard." The fact was developed today that the report of the minority of the Committee is chiefly a sharp and pungent letter from Commissioner WELLS, in which he overturns their arguments and positions with great force and completeness. What renders the thing worse for Mr. MORRELL and his followers, is the fact that the minority report was ordered to be printed with the majority. The scheme of the Committee was to present a report reviewing the report of the Special Commissioner of the Revenue, in which every one who had a grievance against the Special Commissioner, by reason of his recommendation, was to be allowed to make out the best case possible against him. For this purpose all their resources were laid under contribution. The wool manufacturers, under the lead of Mr. JOHN L. HAYES, of Boston, furnished anew the pamphlets issued by them in the early part of last Winter; and the four cotton manufacturers of Boston have also embodied their recent letter denying the accuracy of the statistics of the cotton manufacture presented by the Commissioner, and which he subsequently answered and demolished. In addition to this the report contains a summary of the editorials of the New-York Tribune on wool, the petitions of pig-iron makers, and various other statements gotten up by different parties in respect to gunny cloth, webbing lumber, and the price of wheat; the whole winding up with the conclusion that the Commissioner was not only entirely wrong in all his statements and calculations, but that he meant to misrepresent and misstate the questions at issue, and had also entirely overstepped the legitimate province of his office. This report has been in course of preparation for a long time, with great secrecy, and it was intended to submit it to the House, and have it printed and circulated without giving the Commissioner or his friends the opportunity to submit any rebutting evidence or explanation whatsoever. But, as "the best laid schemes of mice and men gang aft agley," so this of Messrs. MORRELL, OAKES AMES & Co., unexpectedly came to grief. A portion of the Committee not being willing that the Commissioner should be condemned unheard, secured the privilege of furnishing him with the points of attack, with a note requesting that he would submit such answer to the same as he might think proper. But the whole of the joke has not yet been told. The innocent Mr. MORRELL, and the shrewd Mr. OAKES AMES, did not conceive it possible that the minority of the Committee would attempt anything more than a feeble effort in the way of a protest to what was clearly an ex-parte statement, and so when the minority asked the unanimous consent of the House that they might print their statement in connection with those of the majority, the permission was unhesitatingly granted, and the two documents, if circulated at all, will have to be circulated together. As one illustration of the way in which the Commissioner has demolished his adversaries, the case of the article of webbing may be referred to—and this article seems to have been a sort of pet thing with the majority of the Committee, for they enlarge upon it to the extent of several pages, and endeavor to show that the Commissioner, who talked of the reduction of duty on the essential raw materials of our great manufactures, in reality, through ignorance or carelessness, proposed to increase the duty on this particular article to the extent to several hundred per cent. The Commissioner has demolished their whole fabric by simply going to the New-York Custom-house, and taking a copy of the first invoice of webbing imported during the present month. This he presents entire, and leaves every one to see for himself that the duties recommended by him are simply a practical conversion of the present ad valorem into specific rates, and are nothing more; a practical argument from which there can be no escape. So, also, in regard to pig-iron, cotton, wool, lumber, comparative prices of agricultural products, and other matters, the Commissioner brings such a vast amount of additional information as renders his letter to the minority of the Committee on Manufactures second only in importance to the report presented by him at the commencement of the session. Without giving any further details I present herewith the statements of the minority of the Committee, by which the letter of the Commissioner was preceded and followed.

"The minority of the Committee on Manufactures, actuated by an earnest desire that the charges preferred by the petitioners against the Special Commissioner of the Revenue should be fairly examined and discussed, have thought it but simple justice to him to give him the opportunity to make the foregoing statement. In their judgment, enough has been submitted therein to prove that the Commissioner has not been unfaithful to his official trust; that he has not perverted the truth, and that he has not misunderstood the bearing of the present system of tariff and taxation on the industry and development of the country. The Committee, furthermore, cannot conceal from the public their opinion that in all these severe criticisms upon the report of the Special Commissioner of the Revenue, there is something more involved than a question of mere personalities. The true question at issue is not whether the Special Commissioner has understood the cost of the manufacture of pig-iron, the rates of inland freights, the price of gunny-cloth, or decrease of sheep; but they are, rather, shall a burdensome and unprecedented system of taxation upon the whole people and the whole country be maintained, the proceeds of which in great part accrue to special or private interests, and do not flow into the national Treasury for the benefit of the national revenue? and shall the Special Commissioner, for having remonstrated against and exposed the iniquities of such a system, be driven from his office and subjected to reproach and severe public animadversion? Whatever the result of this controversy in respect to the manner in which the Special Commissioner has discharged the duties of his office may be, one thing the minority of the Committee on Manufactures consider certain, and that is, that the right of the citizen to exchange the products of his labor, subject only to the necessary taxation imposed by Government for its legitimate expenses—which right is now denied by our laws—will speedily assert itself. The highest right of property is the right to exchange it for other property. The system which declares that "A" shall trade with "B," and shall not trade with "C," can hardly be distinguished from slavery on any principle. Both systems aim to deprive the individual of a portion of the fruits of his labor without compensation. It is true that the "protective system," so called, promises an individual compensation somewhere in the future, the same as slavery promised the negro his compensation in the world to come. The latter promise was more certain of fulfilment than the former, for it is certain that protection is loss all around; for out of nothing nothing comes. At all events, private rights are infringed by a tariff levied for any other purpose than Government revenue, whatever the pretext may be. The people of a large portion of this country have been so long and so eagerly engaged in looking after other people's rights, that they have almost lost sight of their own. But they are now beginning to inquire to some purpose what has happened to themselves during the past ten years, and the more they investigate this question the more indignant will they become. They will find that certain individuals, many of them conscientious, no doubt, have taken advantage of the crash of arms in which we have so long lived, and from which we have scarcely emerged, to set up a theory that they—these individuals—can spend our money to so much better advantage than we can, that we have no right to inquire what they are doing with it, or whether they are taking too much of it. For example, a duty of over one hundred per cent. is levied upon salt, and if an officer of the Government, or other person, ventures to inquire whether so high a tax is wise, he is denounced as an enemy to American industry, or as the paid agent of foreigners. Furthermore, the tariff, as it is now constituted, is in fact a tax upon exports. Thus, a farmer wishes to buy a barrel of salt; without the tariff he could get it for a bushel of wheat; but when the Government imposes a duty of 100 per cent. on salt it takes two bushels of wheat to pay it. The farmer buys the salt for one bushel of wheat, and is then required to hand the other bushel over to the Government before he can get possession of his own property. If he buys of the home producer of salt, the result is the same so far as the farmer is concerned. It still takes two bushels of wheat to pay for the same quantity of salt. In the one case the Government gets the extra bushel, and in the other case the salt-boiler gets it. But that protects 'home industry,' says somebody. How does it protect home industry to take an extra bushel of wheat away from the farmer? If he did not give it to the salt-boiler, he would give it to the shoemaker and get a pair of brogans perhaps in exchange for it. By so much, therefore, as the industry of the salt-boiler is encouraged, that of the farmer and the shoemaker is discouraged. Under the so-called "protective system" we have a barrel of salt and a bushel of wheat passed to the credit of home industry. Under the other system we have a barrel of salt, two bushels of wheat and a pair of brogans. The human intellect is always striving to obtain more with less; to get a larger product with a smaller effect; to secure equal results with less industry. The protective system, on the other hand, seeks to promote industry at the expense of the products of industry. The theory of the system is that the less you have to pay for foreign goods the worse you are off. Therefore, if you could get your foreign goods absolutely for nothing you would be ruined. The minority of the Committee do not believe that a thinking, reading people can long be deceived by such absurdities. The business of the country at present is in a state of extreme depression, and there can be no doubt that excessive taxation is the main cause of that depression. A tariff, whether levied simply for one purpose or another, is simply a tax. All taxes are assessments upon the aggregate industry of the country, and it makes no difference, so far as the aggregate result is concerned, whether they are imposed in one way or another. All trade is barter; an exchange of product for product, or service for service. And national boundaries, so far as trade is concerned, are mere imaginary lines. A tariff of forty-nine per cent. is a tax of forty-nine per cent. levied upon the industry and the exports of the country which establishes and maintains it. It is a fearful tax; one almost unprecedented in the history of nations; and the Committee can think of nothing which so strikingly demonstrates the great natural resources and productive powers of our country, as the fact that we have been able to survive it. In behalf of the minority of the Committee on Manufactures the above expression of views is respectfully submitted.

ORESTES CLEVELAND,
JOHN M. RICE.

THE NEW-YORK COLLECTORSHIP.

The statement telegraphed from this city that Senator FENTON and Representative KETCHAM are pressing the name of Ex-Congressman ROBERTSON, of Westchester, for Collector in place of Mr. GRINNELL, has no foundation in fact. There has been more or less gossip here about a change, and Judge ROBERTSON's name has been incidentally mentioned among others as an eminently fit man for the position; but it has not assumed the shape of a candidacy, and the mention of his name has undoubtedly been without even his knowledge. The hope is expressed here, however, that the Administration may be enabled to utilize his wide influence and rare executive ability in some position which shall strengthen the organization, and improve the discipline of the Republican Party of the State of New-York.

FISK-GOULD'S WITNESS FEES.

In February last the Sergeant-at-Arms of the House sent on blank receipts to Messrs. JAY GOULD and FISK, Jr., for $61 each, the amount of witness expenses incurred by them in coming to Washington to testify in the gold conspiracy case. Mr. FISK and Mr. GOULD ask the Sergeant-at-Arms to give the money to the poor of the city, or to some charitable institution. Today Mr. ORDWAY disposed of the money by handing it over to the Soldiers' Orphan Asylum, in consideration of the fact that one of the donors had recently joined the military service.

THE BARNSTABLE BREAKWATER PROJECT.

The Committee on Commerce of the House had a further consideration of the Barnstable Bay Breakwater project this morning, but arrived at no definite conclusion in reference to appropriating money to begin the work. The Committee are, however, satisfied that the building of the ship-canal would be of great national importance, and are willing to report a resolution pledging the Government to build the breakwater on the completion of the canal. The matter has not yet been finally disposed of, and it is not improbable that more favorable action may be taken by the Committee.

OUR COMMERCE.

The question of American commerce and American tonnage will be again considered tomorrow morning, by the Joint Committees on Commerce of both Houses, when several prominent ship-builders will be heard. The Committees will probably report in favor of sustaining the main features of Mr. LYNCH's bill.

FINAL ADJOURNMENT.

The Senate today passed the House resolution of adjournment with an amendment, fixing it at the 15th of July, which the House immediately concurred in, and the date is therefore definitely fixed, and both Houses will work up to it. The remainder of the session will witness some sharp work.

THE INCOME TAX.

In the Ways and Means Committee, Messrs. KELLEY and MCCARTHY opposed the Income tax in toto, but offered a compromise of three per cent. and two thousand dollars exemption, which failed. Mr. KELLEY and Mr. MCCARTHY then gave notice that they would oppose the tax in the House.

THE DUTY ON FUR.

Several importers of and dealers in furs from New-York and Philadelphia, had interviews today with the President and Secretary BOUTWELL in reference to the duties on fur. They complain that angora skins are appraised as mats at twenty cents, and that the Custom-house officials have notified them that in future they will appraise at forty-five cents. The President has referred the subject to the Secretary of the Treasury.

PERSONAL.

Among the prominent New-Yorkers in the city are Gen. JOHN COCHRANE, Chairman of the Republican General Committee, and Gen. GEO. H. SHARPE, United States Marshal.

Dispatch to the Associated Press.

A CABINET MEETING.

A special Cabinet meeting was held today, but Secretaries FISH and ROBESON were not present. Assistant Secretary DAVIS represented the State Department. Mr. ROBESON went to Annapolis this morning.

BILL SIGNED.

The President informed the House by a message today that he has signed the bill incorporating a company to erect a new market-house on the site of the present rude structure on Pennsylvania-avenue, at a cost of $1,000,000.

FRENCH SPOLIATION.

It is understood that the Senate will soon take action on Mr. SUMNER's French Spoliation bill, and, in view thereof, the claimants in all sections of the country are now earnestly engaged with memorials and letters to their Senators, soliciting their support to the bill. The bill provides that the Board of Commissioners shall audit the claims within three years, and their awards, to the extent of five millions of dollars pro rata, shall be paid whenever Congress shall make an appropriation therefor. The claimants say, in this simple form such a bill would not conflict with any public measure now pending in Congress.

NEW AMERICAN VESSELS.

Among the applications for official numbers for new American vessels, received at the Bureau of Statistics today, are the following:

New-York, one screw propeller of 1,492 tons; Detroit, nine vessels aggregating 1,932 tons, including one propeller of 889 tons, and another vessel of 743 tons; Waldoborough, 526 tons. The increasing number of applications for registry indicate that our navigation interests are reviving.

NOMINATIONS.

The following nominations were sent in today: JACOB F. STOCK, of Minnesota, to be principal clerk of private land claims in the General Land-office. ANDREW AKIN, of Kansas, to be Register of the Land-office for the Arkansas District, Kansas. W. A. SHANNON, to be Receiver of Public Moneys for the same district.

CONFIRMATIONS.

The Senate in Executive Session today confirmed the following nominations:

Mr. E. P. JACOBS, to be District-Attorney of the Southern District of Mississippi; Mr. GEO. W. DENT, Appraiser of Merchandise of San Francisco, Cal.; Mr. GEO. W. BATCHELDOR, Secretary of the Territory of Dakota; Mr. JESSE MOORE, Postmaster at Owensborough, Ky.; Mr. P. B. HAWKINS, Postmaster at Bowling Green, Ky.

German-American School Association.

The General Committee of the German-American School Association of this City held a regular monthly meeting at Liederkranz Hall, Nos. 31 to 35 East Fourth-street, last evening, Mr. WILLY WALLACH presiding. It was resolved to present by a committee a memorial to the Board of Education with regard to the introduction of German as a regular branch of instruction in the public schools of the several wards. A report was made by a committee appointed for this purpose with regard to the Children's Aid Society of this City, showing its activity and usefulness, and it was resolved to appeal to the Germans of this City for an energetic support of that noble Society. The meeting then adjourned.

DECORATION DAY.

Preparations of the General Executive Committee of the Grand Army of the Republic.

The General Executive Committee of the Grand Army of the Republic met last evening at the head-quarters, No. 31 Union-square, to make preparations for the memorial services on Decoration Day, the 30th inst.

Gen. DUGANNE presided and Cols. FORBES and TREGASKIS acted as Secretaries.

The Committee on Speakers reported that Gen. J. B. MCKEAN had accepted the invitation to deliver the oration at Cypress Hills. The invitations to chaplains were referred to the Committee on Speakers.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That all friends in any way interested in perpetuating the memories of those who upon land and sea gave their lives for the preservation of the Union, are cordially invited to attend with us.

Resolved, That floral contributions are earnestly solicited from the various schools and churches, and from citizens in general.

On motion of Col. MARSHALL the ladies of New-York were invited to co-operate with the Floral Committee in procuring flowers to be strewn over the graves.

Col. MUSGROVE, of Brooklyn, reported the progress of preparations in Brooklyn. He remarked that a number of Brooklyn ladies had held a meeting, and appointed a committee to strew the flowers over the graves.

Col. F. M. PATRICK observed that he had an interview with Col. FISK the previous day, and that he expressed himself to the effect that he would feel pleasure in giving all the assistance he could in procuring transportation for the children from the Union Home, corner of One Hundred and Fifty-first-street and Eleventh-avenue, to Cypress Hills. The Committee on Dress reported that the officers and members of the Grand Marshal's staff were to appear in black dress and fatigue cap, and the remainder of the processionists would be allowed to choose their own dress.

Woman Suffrage—The City and County Association.

The ladies connected with the New-York City and County Suffrage Association, held their regular weekly meeting yesterday afternoon, at the private residence No. 257 West Thirty-fourth-street. As these meetings are intended for informal conversation and unrestricted debate, it has been decided that only ladies shall be permitted to attend them. The members were therefore much surprised, when assembling, to find two gentlemen awaiting their appearance, (one a reporter,) who asked to be allowed to remain. The ladies made an exception in this case, but declared that hereafter gentlemen would not be admitted. The first business in order was the appointing of a committee to confer with Mr. TILTON and obtain his official statement as to the extent to which the Union Suffrage Society will unite with the City and County Association to secure an eligible suite of rooms opposite Union-square for the use of the combined organizations. The announcement was made that Miss S. B. ANTHONY had sold the Revolution to Mrs. BULLARD, of Brooklyn, Mrs. "Jenny June" CROLEY to become working editor, and Messrs. TILTON and STUDWELL stockholders of the concern.

The question, "What effect will suffrage have upon woman as an individual?" was proposed and accepted for next week's discussion.

A lady said the reason gentlemen were not willing women should have the suffrage, was that the majority always rule, and there being a large surplus of women, men would be annihilated as candidates for office.

A discussion ensued as to the capability of women to work in many fields of labor from which they are now excluded.

One member thought a woman was as capable to superintend a public park as a man to do the business of a dress-maker, and referred to a large establishment on Sixth-avenue, where 100 female clerks are employed, and sixty young cash girls. She thought if the merchants generally throughout the City would follow the same plan, there would be fewer girls in the street to be arrested by policemen, and less need of charities and corrections and an item of expenditure would be saved to the City Government.

A gentleman made a short address, in which he spoke of the present favorable state of woman suffrage in France, his knowledge being obtained from correspondence with Mme. LEROUX. Referring to the French Revolution, he said it was sustained by women—Mme. ROLAND being the noblest character who suffered. The Empress EUGENIE has more influence over the French people to keep them in check than the Emperor, who, he said, was a bad man. He was in declining health, and the sooner he died the better for the cause of civil and religious liberty.

The meeting adjourned to meet on Friday, at 3 P. M., at the same place.

A Daring Attempt at Burglary.

A daring attempt at burglary was discovered yesterday after those engaged in it had escaped. The strong-room of SIMPSON, the pawnbroker, at the corner of Delancey-street and the Bowery, contains a large amount in value of diamonds, jewelry, and watches. Some weeks ago a man and woman, whose names have not been ascertained, hired the second-floor room of No. 5 Delancey-street, and yesterday they left abruptly for reasons not yet ascertained. Upon examining the premises after their departure it was found that they had cut through two party walls a hole through which a person could easily pass, through which some one evidently had passed under the stairway leading between Nos. 5 and 3 Delancey-street to the lodge-rooms on the upper floors of Nos. 1 and 3, and underneath which they could work upon the rear of SIMPSON's vault, which is at the rear of his pawn-shop. This vault is of masonry, and some one had plainly been at work upon it, as some of the cement was chipped, but at this moment, for some cause not explained, the toilers abandoned the enterprise.

Resisting a Deputy Marshal.

Two sailors, giving their names as JOHN BROWN and ANDREW SMITH, were arrested, yesterday afternoon, on a charge of obstructing Deputy Marshal ALLEN while in the discharge of his duty. It appeared that the latter took a seaman into custody on a charge of smuggling, and was passing with him through Hamilton-street, when he made his escape, running into a boarding-house in the vicinity. The officer pursued him and endeavored to re-arrest him, but was prevented from so doing by the accused. SMITH was held to bail before Commissioner BETTS, and BROWN was sent to Ludlow street Jail, in default of the same, to await examination.

Admiral Dahlgren's Tribute to the Late Capt. Williams.

The Boston Advertiser publishes the following letter from Rear-Admiral DAHLGREN to Capt. FORBES, of that city:

WASHINGTON, May 13, 1870.

Capt. R. B. Forbes, Boston:

MY DEAR SIR: Your note in relation to the orphan children of Capt. WILLIAMS was received, and I transmit herewith a paper containing the names of officers of the yard who subscribe to the fund for the care of these hapless children. I sincerely trust that sufficient will be raised on the whole to provide fully for them; they have lost a gallant father who served his country with undaunted courage, and never with more honor than when he faced death at his post for the last time.

I knew WILLIAMS well, and he was one of those whom I sent to head the assault on Sumter. Well did he obey that order for a desperate service; he led his men to the top of the breach, and it was his proud distinction to feel with those who followed him that no other feet of Union soldiers or sailors ever trod that ruin while the rebel flag waved over it. He there was made prisoner with the gallant PRESTON, who afterward fell at Fort Fisher, and had the honor of wearing manacles in a rebel prison.

At a later day, when the Union flag was restored to Sumter, I had the satisfaction of sending Capt. WILLIAMS there in command of the naval detachment to represent the navy. The refusal of Capt. WILLIAMS to leave his ship, which he saw sinking, was in effect a resolution to die at his post, and was as heroic and as worthy of commendation as that of the Spartan King who has been honored through ages for his duty at Thermopylæ.

With much regret, yours truly,
J. A. DAHLGREN, Rear-Admiral.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS.

The attendance at the Exchange yesterday was larger than at any time during the past week, and the property disposed of somewhat more desirable than usual. The following were the transactions of the day:

V. K. STEVENSON, SON & CO. sold three high-stoop brown-stone front houses and lots on the south side of Fifty-fifth-street, east of and near Ninth-avenue, known as Nos. 320, 318 and 316 respectively. The houses are well built, in a good neighborhood, and sold in the order named for $11,500, $11,450 and $11,400. They are each 17.2x50, and the lots are 17.2x100.5. Two similar houses and lots, Nos. 304 and 306, on the same street, near Eighth-avenue, brought $10,950 each—the latter are Ohio stone fronts. All the lots are leased property, subject to an annual ground rent of $206 67. The lease has twenty years to run from 1869, with the privilege of renewal for a like term. If really sold, the lots were cheap at the price struck off. Two houses adjoining the first three sold were advertised but withdrawn. A lot 25x100, on the south side of Fifty-fourth-street, 275 feet east of Seventh-avenue, was also disposed of by the same firm, bringing $6,650. The same lot was sold two years ago for $6,500.

E. F. RAYMOND sold, at Sheriff's sale, a lot, with the buildings thereon, located on the east side, known as No. 10 Goerck-street, 160 feet north of Grand-street. The lot is 25x100, and the buildings consist of a two-story brick-front building, with a two-story frame building in the rear. The sale was peremptory, and the property was knocked down for $6,800.

To-day at noon, LAWRENCE, OAKLEY & FLEURY, by order of the Supreme Court, under the direction of D. P. INGRAHAM, Jr., referee, will sell forty-two acres of land located at Hempstead, L. I., belonging to the estate of SARAH THORNE, deceased. The property has been divided into plots of from one-half to two acres each, and the sale will, it is said, certainly take place at Mrs. HEWLET's Hotel, at Hempstead, at the hour named. Those desiring to attend will take the Long Island Railway cars at Hunter's Point. The property, from its proximity to the improvements made and in progress in this locality, is claimed to be particularly desirable.

WROUGHT AND CAST-IRON WORK.

Sealed proposals will be received at the office of the Superintendent until 12 o'clock M., 26th of May, 1870, for furnishing, delivering, fitting, and putting in place the cast and wrought-iron work exhibited in plans and schedules, now in this office, consisting of cast-iron columns, bed-plates, &c., and wrought-iron beams, girders, &c.

All of the castings must be sound, smooth, and straight, cast true, and free from flaws or defects of any kind, and of the best quality of pig-metal, and of the number and weights shown by the schedules and drawings. Castings must not weigh less than the schedule weight, and no surplus weight will be paid for, nor will any castings of less section, or varying in any respect from the requirements of the drawings, be accepted.

All bearings of columns, bases, plates, &c., must be planed or turned perfectly true, all bolt-holes drilled, and the entire work cleaned off and finished in a first-class manner.

The beams and girders must be of the manufacture of the Wadsworth, Phœnix or Pittsburg Union Iron Works, Cooper & Hewitt, or of other American manufacture equal thereto, and must be of the sizes and weights called for in the schedules, and be the best wrought-iron; they will be straight and sound, in all respects of first quality.

All beams set on brick-work must rest on cast-iron bed-plates of the dimensions and numbers required by the specifications and schedules.

All necessary bolts, wedges, ties, angle-irons, anchors, sheet-lead or other materials necessary to put the work together in the best manner and anchor it to the stone or brick walls will be furnished by the contractor, who will put the entire work together and in place, to the complete satisfaction of the Superintendent, and as required by him.

The girders will be put together with bolts and steel wedges, as shown by drawings, and they, together with all beams and castings, will be tested by the Superintendent, and if found defective in any particular, will be rejected.

The contractors will be permitted the use of the derricks and engines, in putting the work in place, without charge, but will be required to pay the time of the men employed in working them, who will be furnished by the Department when required; scaffolding to be furnished by the contractors.

Proposals will be made by the piece for the various castings and beams, which will include the wedges, bolts, angle-irons, clamps, ties, anchors, or other metal work necessary to fit and put the work in place, whether mentioned in drawings or schedules or not.

The work must be furnished, delivered, fitted, and put in place complete, within three months after date of written notice to commence the work.

The work will not be subdivided among different bidders, but will be considered in the aggregate.

The schedules will be used in identifying the material and making the payments, which will be made monthly, deducting ten per cent., until the final completion of the contract.

All bids must be accompanied by a penal bond, in the sum of fifty thousand ($50,000,) dollars, that the bidder will accept and perform the contract, if awarded him, the sufficiency of the security to be certified to by the District-Attorney of the district where he resides.

The Department reserves the right to reject any or all bids, if it be deemed for the interest of the Government to do so; and any bid that is not made on the printed form to be obtained in this office, and does not conform in every respect to the requirements of this advertisement, will not be considered, neither will any proposals be received from any parties who are not themselves engaged in the manufacture of cast or wrought-iron work, and who have not the necessary facilities for getting out the castings or rolled beams.

These lots will be absolutely sold without reserve.

There will also be offered a new French roofed residence, with nine rooms and lot 150 feet square.

Should the day prove stormy, sale will take place on 26th inst., at same hour. Special train at 12 M. from foot of Liberty-st. Collation on arrival of train.

First Mortgage Bonds of the Chicago, Cincinnati & Louisville Railroad Company.

These bonds are part of the first and only issue of the Company for $1,000,000, covering its entire property, and are at the rate of $13,700 per mile. Of the whole amount $600,000 have been already placed, leaving but $400,000 to be sold. They are 7 per cent. coupon bonds due in 1887, interest payable 1st January and July in New-York. The Road is in operation. It is 73 miles long, extending from La Porte on the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern to Peru, where it connects with the Toledo, Wabash and Western and the Peru and Indianapolis Roads. It runs through one of the finest sections of Indiana, and makes a connecting link in the best through line from Chicago to Indianapolis, and thence to Cincinnati and Louisville.

We confidently offer these bonds as a desirable security to investors, AS THE NET EARNINGS OF THE ROAD FROM THE OPENING HAVE BEEN IN EXCESS OF THE INTEREST ON ITS BONDED DEBT, AND ARE CONSTANTLY INCREASING. Besides it is designed to extend the Road to Lake Michigan at New Buffalo or Michigan City the coming season, which will also greatly increase its earnings.

FINANCIAL.

INDIANAPOLIS, BLOOMINGTON
AND
WESTERN RAILWAY
SEVEN PER CENT. GOLD LOAN.

The bonds are in denominations of $1,000 each, secured by a first mortgage on 205 miles of road, from Indianapolis, the largest city and most important railroad center in the State of Indiana, to the City of Pekin, in Illinois.

ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY MILES of the line are now IN FULL OPERATION, equipped with new first-class rolling stock, and already EARNING MUCH MORE THAN THE INTEREST ON THE WHOLE ISSUE OF BONDS. The balance, thirty-five miles, is being rapidly constructed, is nearly all graded, and UNDER CONTRACT TO BE FINISHED IN JUNE NEXT.

There are thirty-six depots on the line, LOCATED IN CITIES AND TOWNS THAT CONTAIN, IN THE AGGREGATE, A POPULATION OF ONE HUNDRED AND NINETY THOUSAND, averaging over 920 to each square mile, within a radius of half a mile of the track; and WITHIN TWENTY MILES OF THE TRACK THERE IS A POPULATION OF ABOUT SIX HUNDRED THOUSAND.

It passes through the counties of Marion, Hendricks, Montgomery, Fountain, Warren and Vermillion, in the State of Indiana, and Vermillion, Champaign, De Witt, Piatt, McLean and Tazewell Counties, in Illinois, on the line of the old emigrant State road, which was laid out in the best portion of those States before the time of railroads, was then the main line of Western travel, and consequently became more thickly settled than other sections of the West, as the numerous cities, large villages, and products of these counties demonstrate.

Besides the large agricultural productions of this section the manufacturing interest is very extensive in the large towns, and is rapidly increasing.

The coal-mines at Danville on this line are extensively and profitably worked, and FURNISH BUSINESS FOR OVER THREE HUNDRED COAL CARS on this line at present, and MORE THAN TWICE THAT NUMBER WILL BE REQUIRED to carry coal on completion of the remaining link.

From the present earnings on 170 miles it is safe to assume that the LOCAL BUSINESS ALONE WILL BE AMPLE NOT ONLY TO PAY THE BONDED DEBT, BUT LARGE DIVIDENDS ON THE STOCK.

In addition to the population and wealth of the country, and all that is necessary to support a first-class road and make it a profitable investment through local traffic, it forms a grand central trunk line FOR THROUGH BUSINESS, NOT SURPASSED BY ANY ROAD OF EQUAL LENGTH IN THE WEST.

At Indianapolis it connects by main lines with the cities of Columbus, Cleveland, Pittsburg, Cincinnati—and with the Pennsylvania Central, Baltimore and Ohio, Chesapeake and Ohio, and other important railroad lines. At Pekin, the western terminus, connections are made with Peoria, Quincy, Keokuk, Burlington and Omaha. At Bloomington with the Illinois Central Road, which runs north-west 600 miles to Fort Dodge, Iowa. A very large business will be done with this line. At Danville it connects by rail with Toledo on Lake Erie. A map will show all these to be very important connections in making through lines over this route.

THE LOAN IS PLACED BEYOND ANY CONTINGENCY BY THE PRESENT EARNINGS FROM LOCAL TRAFFIC ON ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY MILES, which must necessarily be doubled when the trains run through.

THE BONDS ARE CONVERTIBLE at the option of the holder into stock at par at any time, which adds greatly to their value. They may be registered at the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company, if desired.

Coupons payable April and October, free of tax.

Total issue $5,000,000—$2,000,000 of which are placed in trust with the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company to redeem and cancel $2,000,000 bonds issued to the Danville, Urbana, Bloomington and Pekin Railroad, now merged into this road, making the loan only $3,000,000, OVER HALF OF WHICH HAS BEEN SOLD IN EUROPE AND THIS MARKET. The balance we offer at 90 AND ACCRUED INTEREST. At this low price the Bonds, being so amply secured, will be quickly marketed.

We have been thoroughly posted in regard to the road from the start, have closely inspected it from time to time during construction, and being familiar with the wealth and resources of the country, the responsibility and integrity of the officers and directors of the Company, and the present earnings of the road, it is with pleasure that WE RECOMMEND THE BONDS AS ONE OF THE CHEAPEST AND SAFEST INVESTMENTS IN THE MARKET, sure of a high standard among the best railroad securities in the country.

All marketable securities received in exchange at market rates. Bonds delivered to all points FREE OF EXPRESS CHARGES.

DIVIDEND-PAYING COMPANY.

We offer for sale a limited amount of
LOUISVILLE AND NASHVILLE RAILROAD
FIRST MORTGAGE
7s
At Ninety and Accrued Interest from April 1.

The above bonds are issued on a road costing about double the amount of the mortgage, and which has a PAID-IN CAPITAL STOCK OF NEARLY NINE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, upon which for the PAST SEVEN YEARS DIVIDENDS OF FROM 7 to 8 PER CENT. PER ANNUM have been regularly paid.

The net earnings of the road last year were over

$1,000,000.

The gross earnings of the first six months of this year show an increase of THIRTY PER CENT. above corresponding six months last year. This is caused by the immense business the Company is doing—more freight offering than they can carry. The money procured from these bonds has been used to purchase feeding roads, and to add needed facilities for moving freight. We would call the attention of investors to these bonds, as they are issued by an old Company with a large paid-in stock capital, which has demonstrated its ability to pay its liabilities and make money.

THE MOUNT HOPE TRAGEDY.

The Wife-Murderer Halloran Convicted—His Probable Sentence.

The trial of THOMAS HALLORAN for the murder of his wife, was concluded in the Morris County Court of Oyer and Terminer yesterday. The counsel for the defense, J. VANAKA, Esq., began his summing up upon the opening of the Court, and made an able effort in behalf of the prisoner, which consumed two hours. The defense consisted of a general denial that Mrs. HALLORAN came to her death from the blows inflicted by the prisoner; that he had beaten her was admitted, but that the evidence proved the fatal result from the blow, or that the wounds were even of a nature to cause death was denied. The counsel for the defense demanded of the Court that the evidence of Drs. KING and CUMMINGS, who made the autopsy of the body, should be ruled out, as no evidence was offered to prove that the body so dissected was the body of BRIDGET HALLORAN. The evidence of MARY HALLORAN, the prisoner's child, ten years of age, who alone witnessed the blow, was also objected to by the counsel, who claimed that the child had been "put up" to the story she told, which was full of contradictions. District-Attorney MILLS commenced his closing speech at 11 o'clock, and made a protracted argument for conviction.

Judge DALRYMPLE charged the jury, after which they retired for deliberation. During the absence of the jury, the prisoner showed for the first time anything approaching to nervousness. With every entrance into the Court-room he glanced eagerly at the door, and when, after an absence of an hour, the jury re-entered, he evidently felt the importance to him of their verdict. The foreman in a firm voice pronounced the verdict, which was murder in the second degree, and on the calling of each juror's name, every man gave the verdict of guilty. The prisoner by this time had recovered his usual composure, and smiled as the verdict was pronounced. He will be sentenced on Monday week. The law of this State allows a person punishment of not less than five nor more than twenty years in the State Prison. It is believed he will receive a sentence of fifteen years. By the courtesy of Sheriff BRIANT, our representative was admitted to the cell of the convict. HALLORAN expressed himself as regretful that he was not to be hung. He would prefer that, he declared, to the horrors of the coming years. From his conversation, it appears that he is a man of some means, owning a good deal of property about Mount Hope. He says he was worth from $5,000 to $6,000 when he was arrested.

CONTRABAND CIGARS.

Seizure of 30.000 Havana Cigars—Probable Libel of the Steamer Missouri.

The members of Col. WHITLEY's secret service force have been actively engaged for some time past in ferreting out the operations of cigar smugglers, and have, in consequence, caused lively consternation among a large number of Havana and Matanzas steam-ship men, who have heretofore enjoyed comparative safety in their schemes for bringing costly and fragrant cigars into this port without payment of import duty. For some time the detectives were foiled in their efforts to detect the offenders in any actual offense against the Government, so carefully and systematically were the smuggling plans carried out. Recently, however, they succeeded in making several important arrests, and in confiscating several thousand dollar's worth of contraband cigars, besides communicating information to Collector GRINNELL, which led to the seizure of the steamers Columbia and Cleopatra, on a charge of having been used for smuggling purposes.

Yesterday WILLIAM D. HEMPSTEAD, Purser of the steamer Missouri, running between this City and Cuba, was arrested on complaint of one of Col. WHITLEY's deputies, for having, it was alleged, assisted in introducing smuggled cigars into New-York. It was claimed that about 1,000 loose and unstamped cigars had been found in his room at a search which was held on the previous evening. They were taken from drawers having false bottoms, under which they were concealed. It was reported that upward of 30,000 smuggled cigars, of which a large number were of the Henry Clay and Florida de Fuma brands, had been discovered on the vessel. Some of them were taken from false bulkheads and false scuttles. A large quantity was, it is said, secreted in bags under a heap of coal and wood in the hold of the steamer. The entire lot was seized, and was placed in charge of two officers. The room occupied by one of the mates was sealed up to wait further inspection. It is understood that there is some likelihood of the Missouri's being seized and libeled by the Federal authorities. HEMPSTEAD was held by Commissioner OSBORN in $1,000 bail to appear for examination on Monday next.

A Man Struck Dead by Lightning—A Railroad Depot Partially Destroyed.

A severe thunder-storm passed over this City yesterday morning, a little after daybreak. It was accompanied by very sharp flashes of lightning, which did no damage hereabouts, so far as we have heard. In New-Jersey, however, one man was killed and a boy was seriously injured. ROBERT MERRYFIELD, a farmer, living on the Bound Brook road, a few miles from New-Brunswick, was instantly killed by a stroke of lightning. Mr. MERRYFIELD was at work on the road, near his house, in building a fence, and was accompanied by a boy, who assisted him. When the shock came they were about ten feet apart. Both were thrown down, Mr. MERRYFIELD being instantly killed. The boy was stunned, and continued for some time insensible. The body of the unfortunate man and that of the boy were taken up, and were removed to the house where the grief-stricken widow and children were. No effort that could be made, although many expedients were tried, could restore the husband and father to life. The boy recovered his senses after an hour of unconsciousness, but he was last evening reported to be still in a precarious condition. The depot at the Springtown station, on the New-Jersey Central Railroad, was partially destroyed by lightning at about the time this accident occurred. It was also reported in New-Brunswick last evening that the house of Mr. JOHN REYNOLDS, beyond Bound Brook, was thrown down, and that one of the inmates was seriously injured. The truth of the report could not be ascertained.

Children's Aid Society—Statistics of the Last Month.

The regular monthly meeting of the trustees of the Children's Aid Society was held on Wednesday evening, the President, WM. A. BOOTH, Esq., in the chair, C. L. Brace, Esq., Secretary. Present, Messrs. Wm. A. Booth, R. J. Livingston, Judge Kirkland, Charles E. Whitehead, C. L. Brace, Benjamin J. Howland and G. Cabot Ward.

Reports from the different departments and agents of the Society were received, showing the month's work of the Society as follows:

Two hundred and seventeen persons—23 men, 31 women, 125 boys and 38 girls—were provided with homes and employments—mostly in Western States.

The daily average attendance at the twenty Industrial Schools was 2,316.

At the Newsboys' Lodging-house, No. 49 Park-place, the nightly average attendance had been 170; 5,092 lodgings and 5,118 meals had been given out; forty-nine boys were provided with places. The boys contributed $413 toward the expenses, and 163 boys saved $231 91 in the bank of the institution. The Girls' Lodging-house, No. 125 Bleecker-street, admitted 104 girls during the month, furnished 946 lodgings and 2,249 meals; nineteen girls were provided with places, and thirteen restored to their friends and families. In the sewing-machine class sixty-four girls were instructed to operate, making the total number of girls taught since the opening in November, 755.

The Eleventh Ward Lodging-house, No. 709 East Eleventh-street, furnished 1,597 lodgings and 1,563 meals. Admitted 55 different boys.

The Sixteenth-street Lodging-house, No. 211 West Sixteenth-street, admitted 108 different boys; nightly average attendance, 80; number of lodgings furnished, 2,400; meals supplied, 2,734. Four boys were provided with places, and 19 boys were restored to their friends.

Horrible Outrages in Union County, N. J.

The negro who outraged a cloored girl named HAGAR SMITH, near Morse's Mills, in Union County, N. J., has been arrested and committed to the jail in Elizabeth. The girl states that the negro attacked her in MAYO's woods, while she was returning to her home from the store; that he kept her all night, tied to a tree, robbed her of all the money she had, and threatened to pour turpentine upon her and burn her to death. A bottle of turpentine was in the basket which she was carrying home from the store, and the negro was only prevented from putting his threat into execution by his failure to find a match. When morning arrived he untied the girl and let her go, threatening to murder her if she betrayed him.

The negro was arrested by Chief KEEON, of Elizabeth, after a long chase in the country. He gave his name as WILLIAM HENRY, but was identified as GEORGE ALBERT. He had been employed by Mr. JOB WINANS, and was well known in the neighborhood.

Domestic Infelicity in Newark.

Yesterday morning Mr. GEORGE R. SNYDER, a young man engaged in the livery business in Newark, was arrested and taken before Justice NUGENT upon a charge of wife desertion. He was married about eighteen months ago to Miss ELSTON, the daughter of Mr. L. O. ELSTON, of Irvington. They lived happily until, in the month of January last, SNYDER persuaded his wife to go home to her father's house for a few weeks. While there she received letters from her husband, informing her that he would not support her, and that she must not call herself his wife. She went to Newark to see him, begging him not to desert her and her child, but was met with brutal treatment. After months spent in trying to persuade her husband to take her back, the young wife procured a warrant for his arrest. He was held to bail for trial.

Miss Edith O'Gorman on Convent Life and the Romish School System—An Interruption and a Scene.

Miss EDITH O'GORMAN delivered the third of a series of lectures at the Cooper Institute last evening, on "Convent Life and the Romish School System," before a large audience, among whom were a few Roman Catholics. The lecturer graphically described her experience of the convent life, and the immoralities perpetrated under the cloak and in the name of religion. With others who have been beguiled by the hypocrisy and plausibility of priests and nuns, she herself was induced to enter a monastic life in the expectation of fully coming into communion with Christ, but how bitterly was she disappointed? She found, after a short experience, that in the convent all the passions, emotions and feelings to be found in the sex were fully developed, and under the peculiar circumstances in which they were placed, they were developed to their shame and degradation. They were wedded to a celestial spouse, but they preferred a terrestrial one, and she knew of one instance in which six nuns were in love with one priest. Being bound to the doctrine of passive obedience, the nun makes known to her confessor the most secret thoughts and the impulses of her being, and in the confessional are propounded to her questions which under other circumstances would be regarded as flagrant insults. The opinions and advice of her confessor, which she regards as the oracles of God, steadily undermine her feelings of morality and Christian womanhood, until finally she becomes the pitiable victim of a black-hearted betrayer. In the convent she is exposed to the love-making of priests inflated with wine, who are adepts in the ways of deceit that under the mask of confession they ruin even the virtue of married women and unsuspecting young girls. Miss O'GORMAN then referred to the schools, for the exclusion of the Bible from the schools, an attempt which she characterized as a Jesuitical device to destroy free Protestant institutions. In conclusion she encouraged firmness in encountering Roman ingenuity, which endangered a nation's existence wherever it raised its head.

During Miss O'GORMAN's address an elderly lady, who pronounced herself a Roman Catholic, advanced from her seat toward the platform and interrupted her by asking a question bearing on the truth of her statements. A scene of confusion and disorder immediately arose, and cries of "turn her out" were heard in all parts of the hall. The policeman quietly ordered her out, but she remonstrated, insisted and resisted and finally was forced outside the doors crying "It's all a lie." With this exception the lecture passed off very quietly.

Violating the Election Law.

Officer O'CONNOR, of the Nineteenth Precinct, had JAMES THOMPSON arraigned at the Yorkville Police Court, before Justice BIXBY, yesterday, on a charge of leading up a gang of men to the poll in the Fourteenth Election District of the Nineteenth Ward, on Tuesday, and inducing them to vote, they having no residence in the Ward. The inspectors of election and poll clerks were examined, and their testimony would lead to the belief that the accused was entirely innocent of all attempt to violate the Election law. The Judge said he had no doubt but the innocence of the accused would be satisfactorily established, but as the officer had some more witnesses to produce, he would adjourn the examination until today.

An impression prevails that the channel rocks might be "lifted" after the fashion of Blossom Rock in San Francisco Bay; but the explosion of twenty-three tons of powder in the confined limits of the Gate and within a short distance of many buildings would be a "blast from Hell" Gate not relished in the neighborhood. Prof. MAILLEFERT is endeavoring to get some money from the Government for what he has done, and is also applying for an extension of his contract.

Coachman's call-bell, servants'-bell, table-bell, dining-room-bell, door-bells, house call-bells, burglar alarm-bell—all rung by electricity. No one should build or live in a house without examining and understanding our telegraphic system for a residence. A house is not complete, and has not the chief of modern improvements, without it.

The Sappho's recent victory over the Cambria is only the first of the nautical knocks that have been prepared to shock the nerves of the British yachtmen; and elated Americans generally are binding their brows with victorious wreaths, each a souvenir of triumphal KNOX, in the form of a handsome hat from No. 212 Broadway, corner of Fulton-street. The great hatter's present issue of headgear is the most beautiful and desirable ever issued from his famed establishment.

Look out for infringements and cheap imitations of my Burglar Alarm Telegraph patent, even if called an improvement. Using, as well as selling an infringement is violation of the law and will be treated as such.

West Wisconsin R. R. Co.

FIFTEEN YEARS TO RUN FROM JANUARY, 1870, AND CONVERTIBLE INTO STOCK AT PAR.

LAND GRANT OF OVER 1,000,000 ACRES FROM GOVERNMENT, upon which, together with the Road and all its property, these Bonds are a First Mortgage.

EXEMPTED FROM TAXES UPON ITS LANDS FOR 15 YEARS.

70 MILES FINISHED AND RUNNING,

An air-line from St. Paul's to Milwaukee and Chicago. These Lands estimated worth $8,000,000. Total amount of mortgage when Road is completed, $4,000,000. The Road is divided into four sections, and $1,000,000 Bonds are issued upon completion of each section. As these lands are sold, the proceeds are held by the Trustees as a Sinking Fund for the liquidation of the bonded debt. These Bonds, we confidently assert, are the safest and cheapest security offered in this market. The price at present is 90 flat, but will probably be raised in a few days to 90 and accrued interest. The coupons are payable January and July, making them the first year, with accrued interest and gold at 115, a 12 per cent. investment, and about 9 per cent. thereafter. Pamphlets, with full particulars, and map can be obtained at the office of

SEVEN PER CENT. BONDS

OF THE

New-Haven, Middletown and Willimantic Railroad Company

One-half of the Road will be completed and Trains running early in May; two-thirds of the total cost of the enterprise has already been expended; nearly three thousand men are engaged on the work, and before the close of the year it is expected the WHOLE LINE WILL BE IN SUCCESSFUL OPERATION. The
